PIRATEER 1963

Carolyn

Carolyn Bozeman

To a very sweet and nice girl, stay as you are and you're bound to succeed.

Linda Windom

Kay Humphrey

Good luck in the future to a real sweet girl. May you have the best that life has to offer

Gaynelle

Best wishes to a very nice and pretty girl who has a very good personality.

Bev

Carolyn,
I have really enjoyed knowing you. You are a very sweet and cute girl. I wish you all the luck in the world, because if anyone deserves it, you do.

Love you,
Nancy,
Liser

Carolyn,
I have enjoyed being in typing I class with you. I hope you have all the success in the world. Best of luck in the near future.

Lots of Luck
Kay Humphrey

You really ought to try resting your mind sometime. It's refreshing.

Jim Patterson

To one of the sweetest girls ever! Love ya!

[illegible]

Carolyn,
You're a real sweet and friendly girl. It's been nice sharing your friendship and being in Typing and I with you. I'll miss you (your mouth) next year. Good luck.

Lots of laughs,
Rachel Pitman

Carolyn,

You are really a nut, some character, I don't believe I have ever met anyone like you before. I am convinced that you are [illegible] mad. What did they do to you [illegible] in Florida before you moved down [illegible]. It's sad to be writing in your annual [illegible] last time I [illegible] [illegible] of you [illegible] wonderful and I hate to say good-bye. But I hope it won't be good-bye [illegible] Remember all the good times [illegible] I don't know what I am going to [illegible] and Chem. under B. We have really had a ball. I wish you all the luck in the world and don't let me down, you'll be a success I'm sure. Good luck Faye Ward

Carolyn,
it has been nice knowing you this year. I have had a lot of fun in class with you. Best of luck.
Always,
Anna Faye

Carolyn,
I sure have enjoyed knowing you. We've had a good time this year, haven't we? Best of luck in the future.
Love ya
Betty

Foreword

What memories do you have of the school year 1962-63? Was it your last year? your first? Whatever year in your school career, we think it was a year well worth remembering. Through this edition, we, the '63 PIRATEER staff, hope to preserve these memories.

Carolyn,
It has been fun being in the same class with such a sweet girl. Best wishes to you always.
Glenda Pittman

Carolyn, Shorthand just wouldn't have been the same without you this year. May the best of luck be yours in the future and may God bless you.
Love,
Vivian

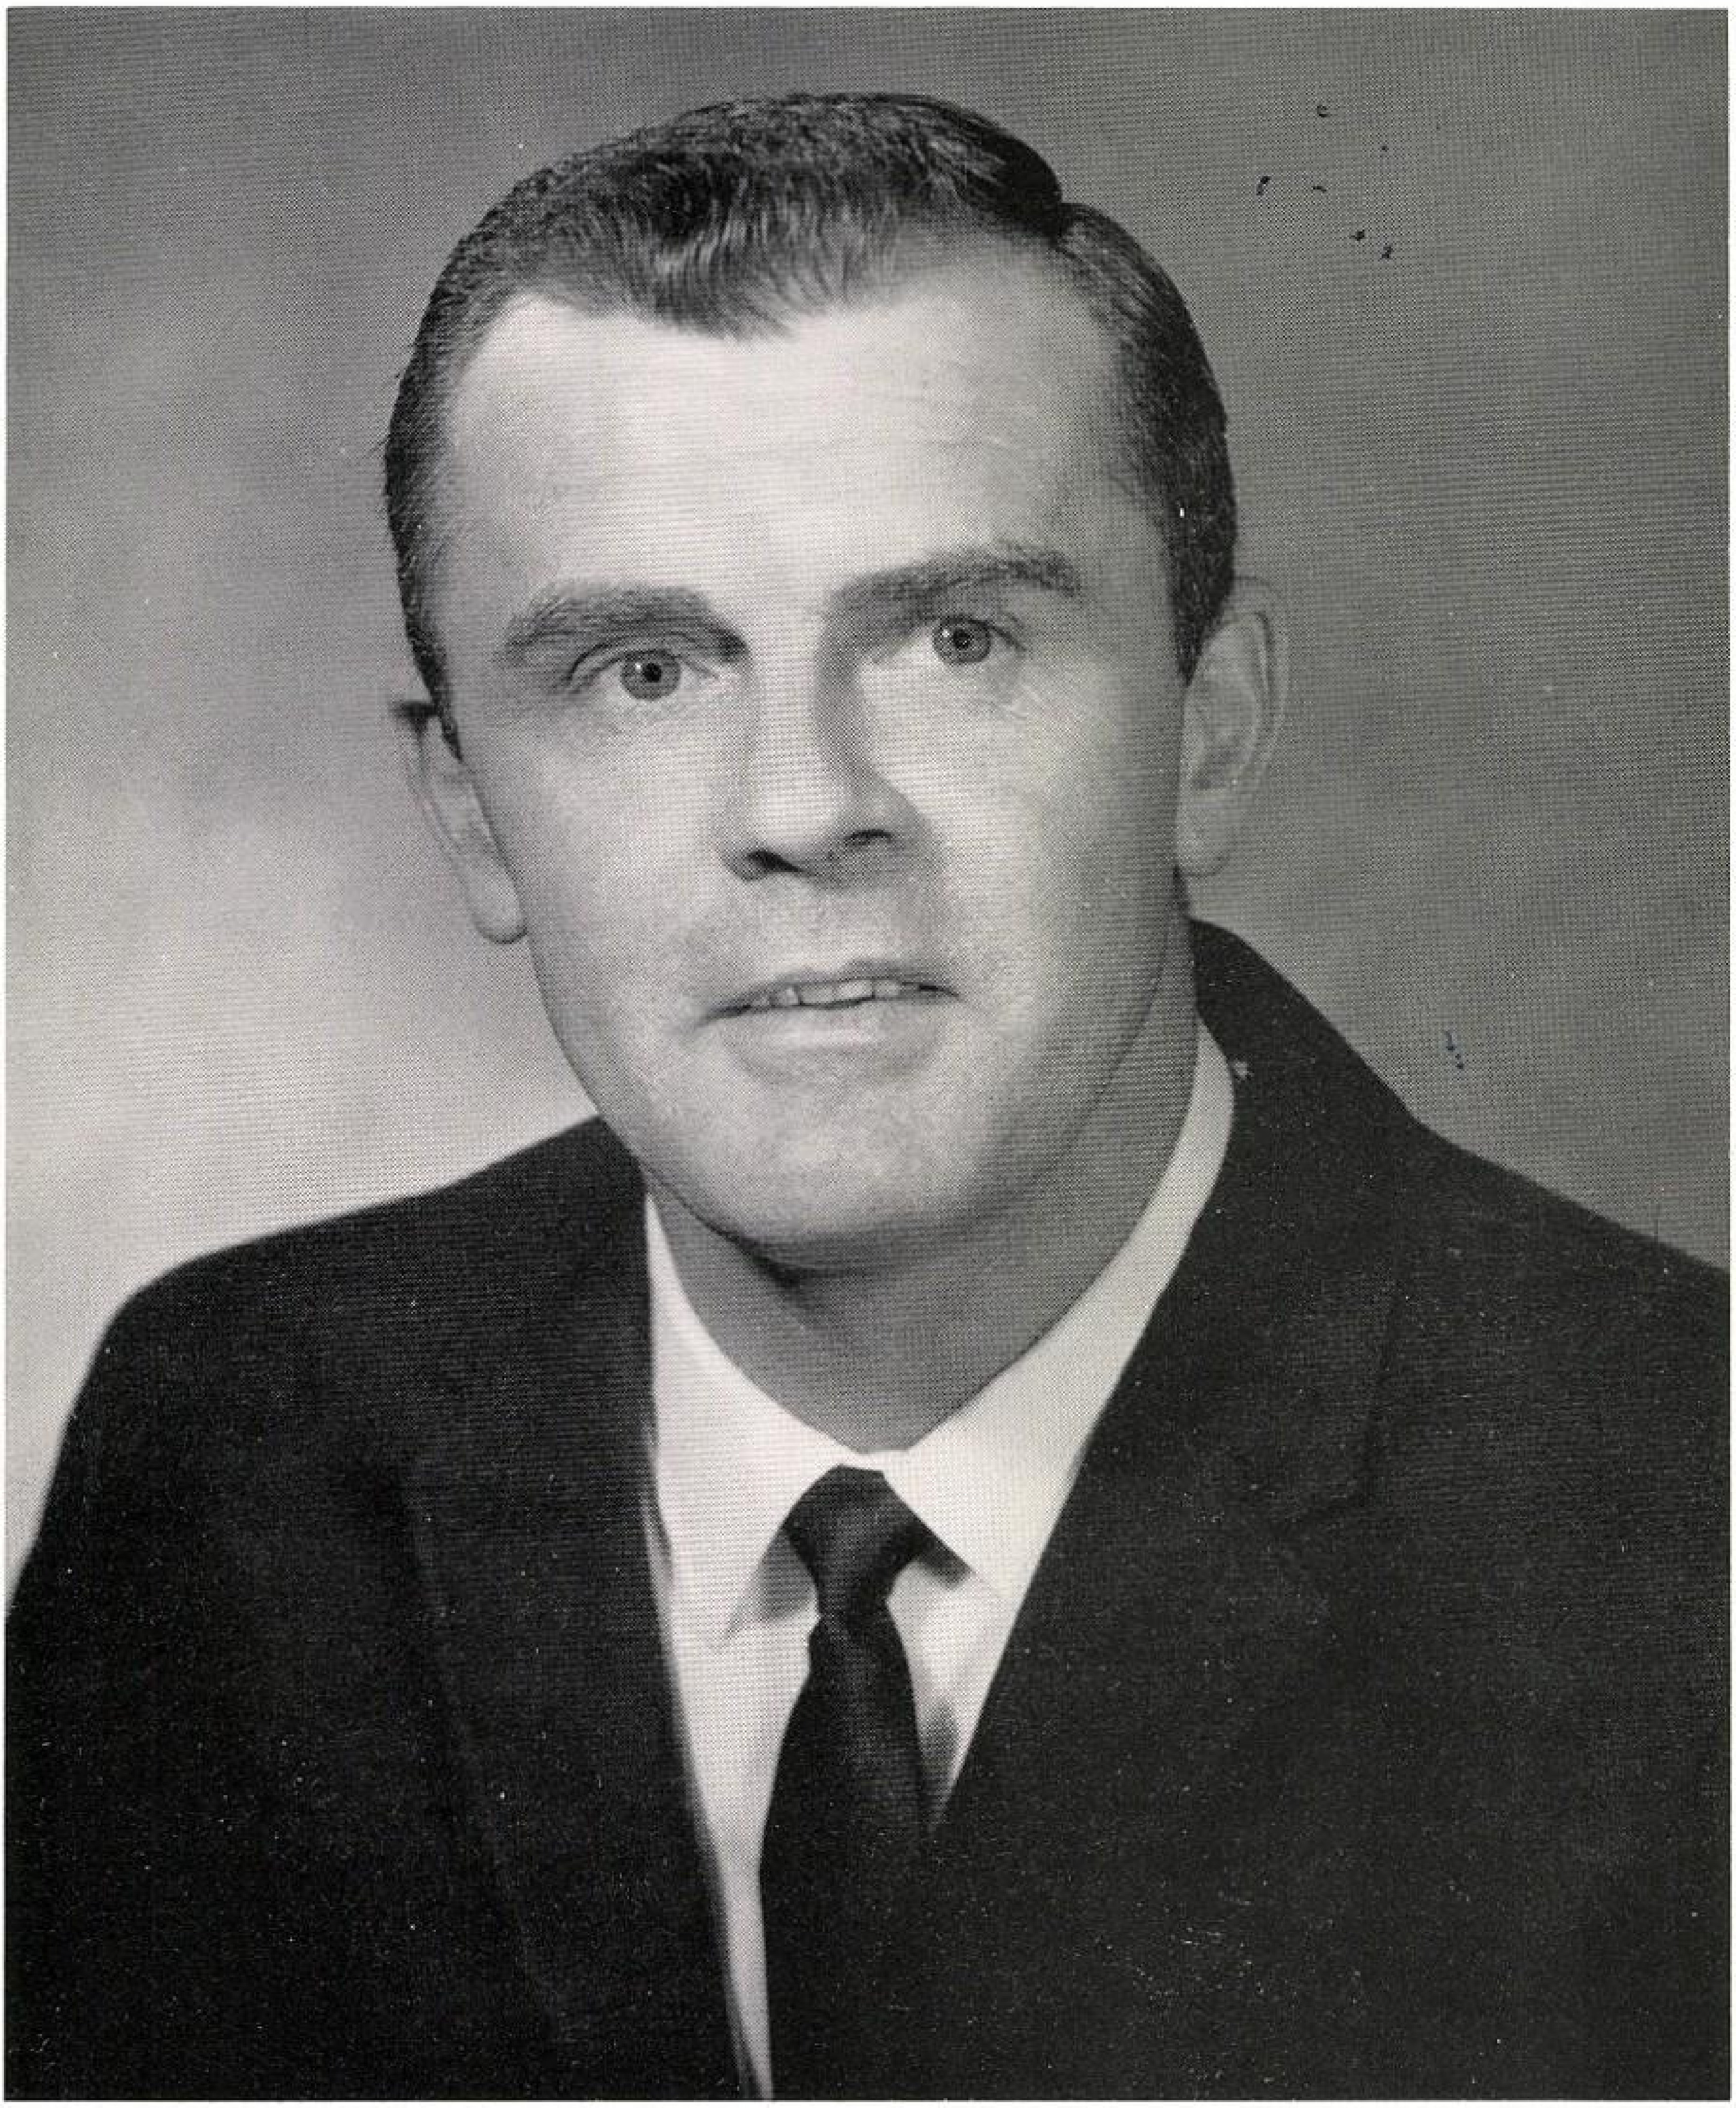
Farewell

Carolyn,
I have known you for a long time and I have enjoyed every minute around you. You are so much fun. Keep up the good work and you will go high in your future. I hope we will always be friends.
always a friend
Hazel

Carolyn,
We have been in many classes together, every since the 1st grade. I will never forget the years at the Rowland Rosemont School. We really got into trouble didn't we? Always remember me and our good times.
Love,
Bessie

Carolyn,
I have enjoyed knowing you and being a friend of yours through my high school years. We have had some wonderful times together. (Down at the beach)... Hope some day you will [redacted] the life

Dedication



Mr. Alton Brooks

His enthusiasm, both on and off the athletic field, has inspired not only several championship teams but also a high degree of sportsmanship and school spirit among the student body. His outgoing personality and his outstanding leadership will long be remembered by the students of Lumberton High School.

To express our sincere appreciation to him for all he has done, the '63 PIRATEER staff proudly dedicates this 1963 PIRATEER to Coach Tunny Brooks.

Caylon,
You are one my favorite people in the whole world. You know that I think the world of you.
You have an excellent personality ~ and your very kind and considerate ~ Caylon, I'll never forget all the fun we've had at the lake and the beach and everywhere
we have ever been together ~ and so approaching to graduation
we get closer ~
I think a lot of the beautiful memories we've had in high school ~ I know my life was mostly happier by knowing you.
Please always stay as you are and don't change ~
everyone love you as you are Please be sweet as you forever ~ Remember I love you ~ and please don't ever forget me ~ I'll be looking forward to seeing you next year. God Bless You
Much Love
James G.

Bozo-
It's been a long 12 years but they've been wonderful.
We started out together in the first grade and have been together ever since. Do you remember how we used to have to spend our lunchhours in the 3rd grade? And do you remember all those swimming parties? And how could we ever forget
Mrs. Farmer! I hope we'll always remain close friends even though separated. Good luck & love always. Sincerely

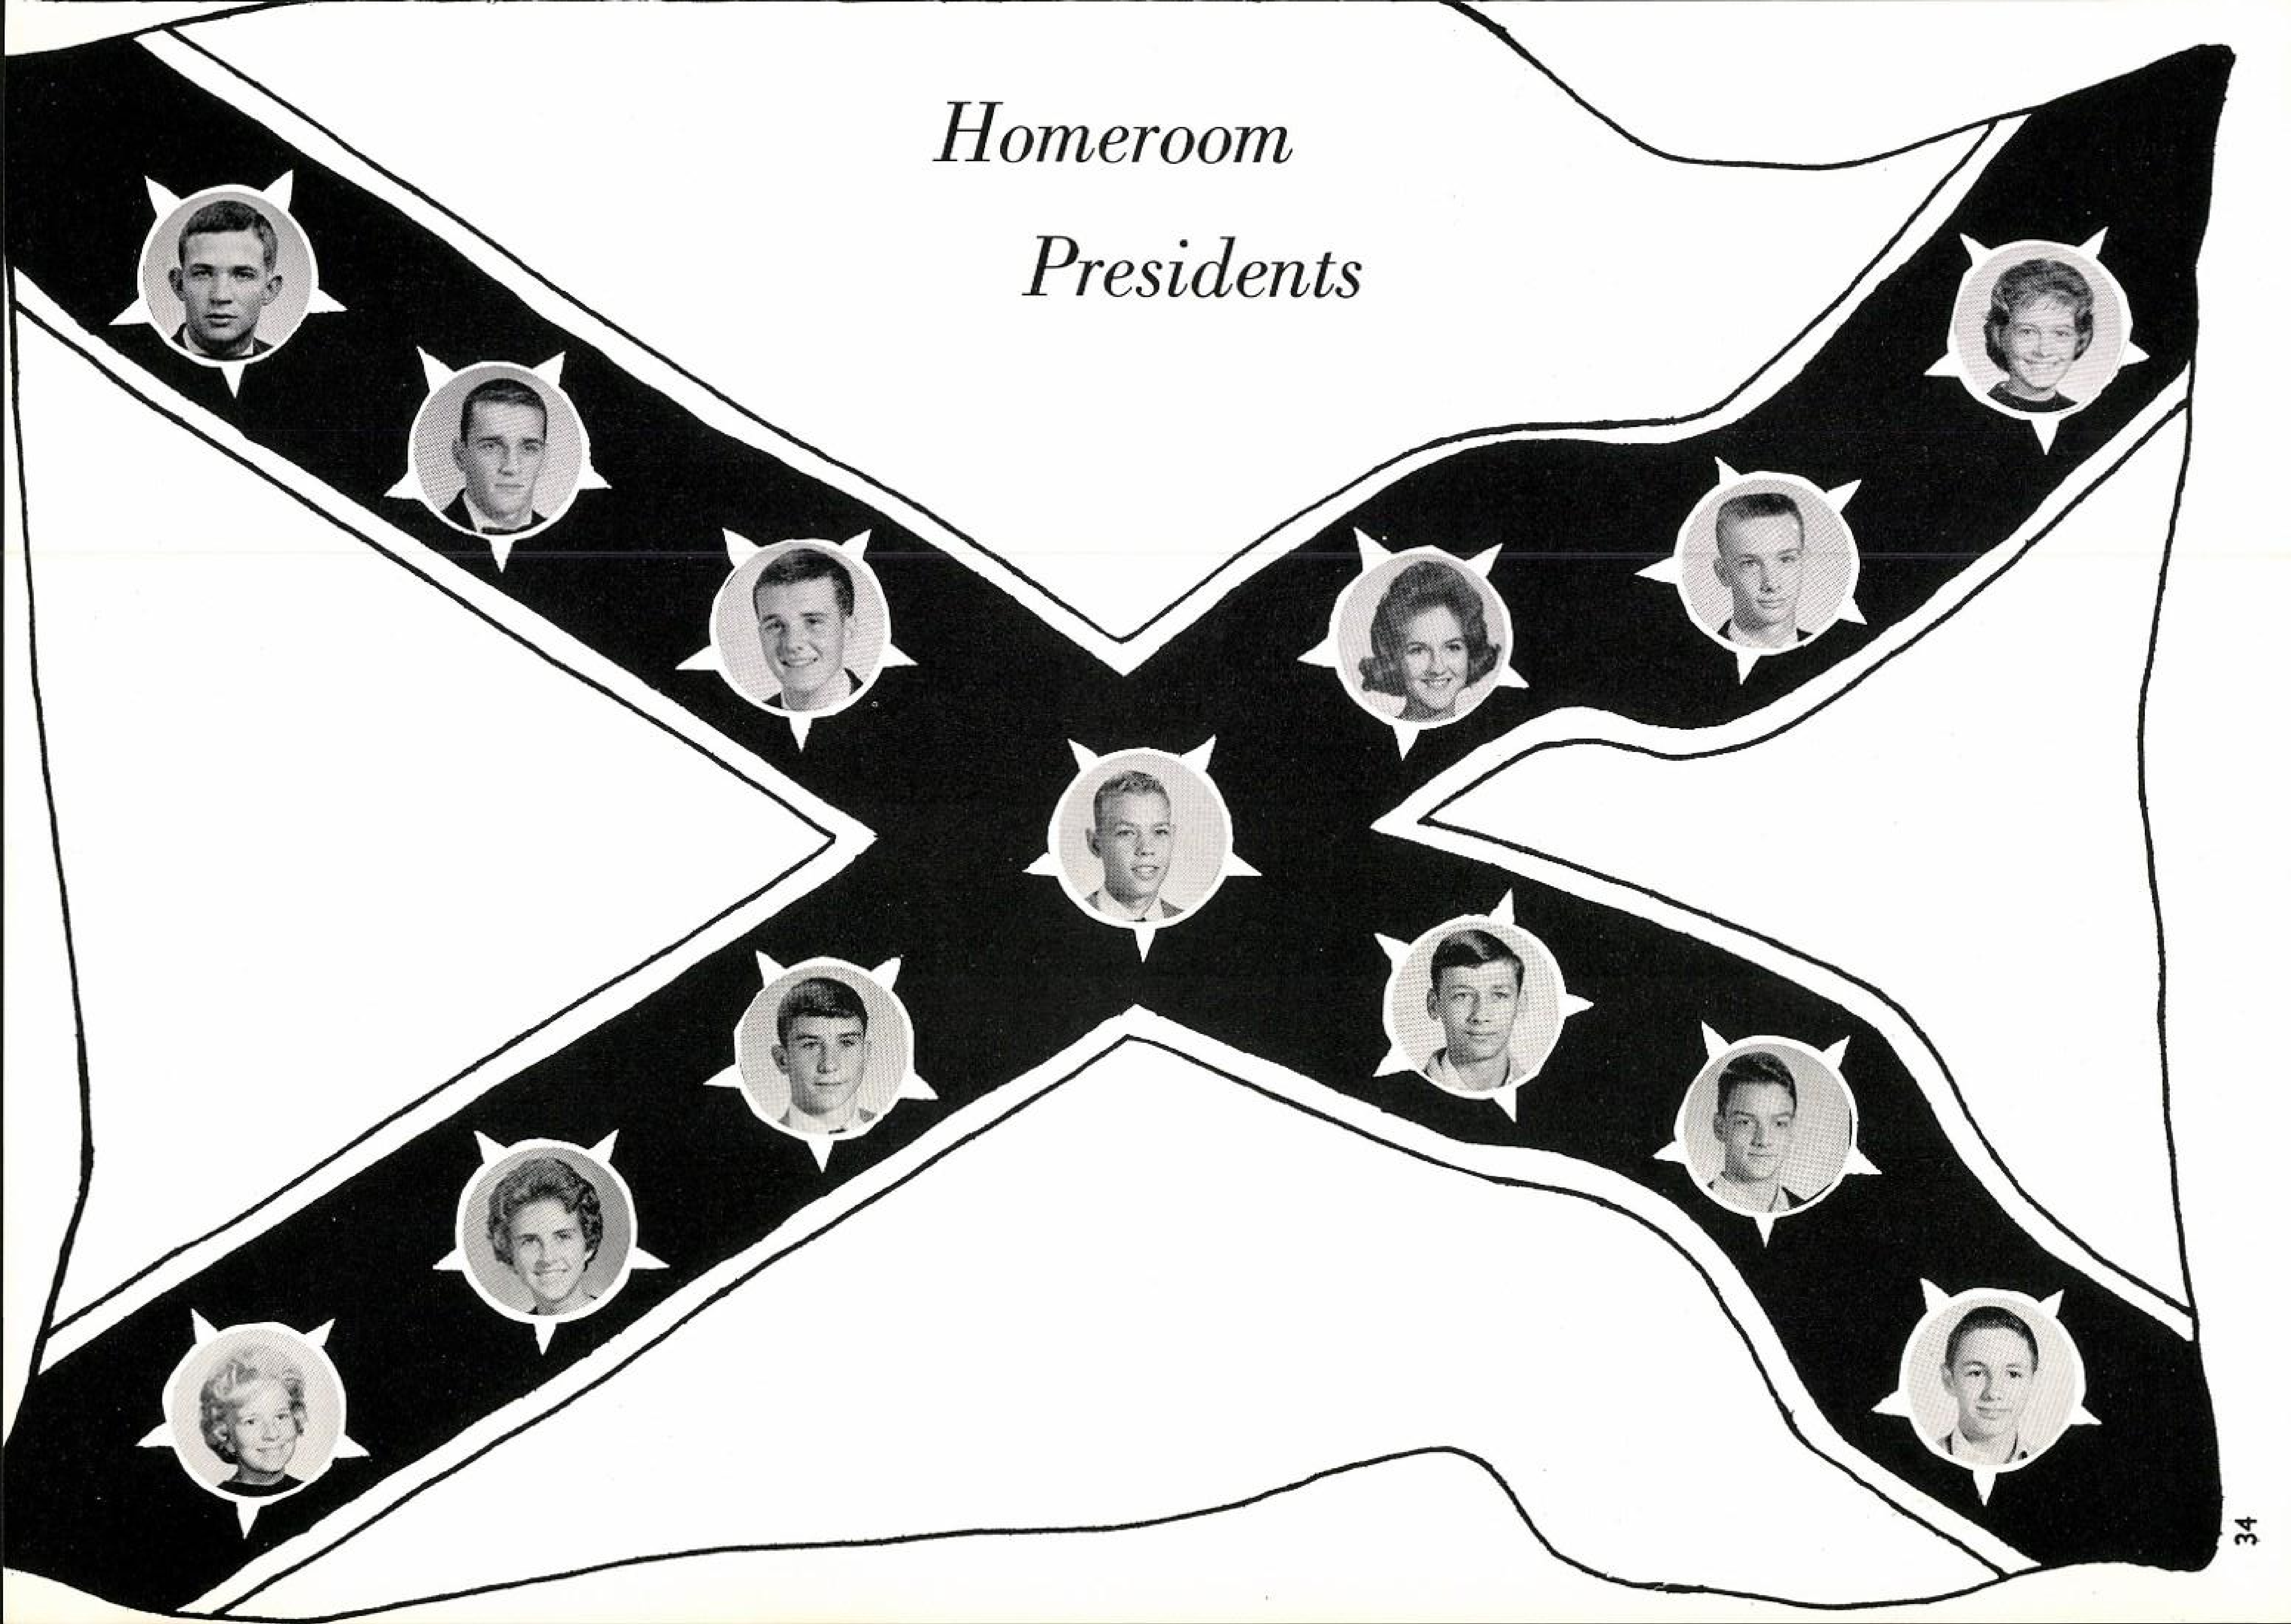
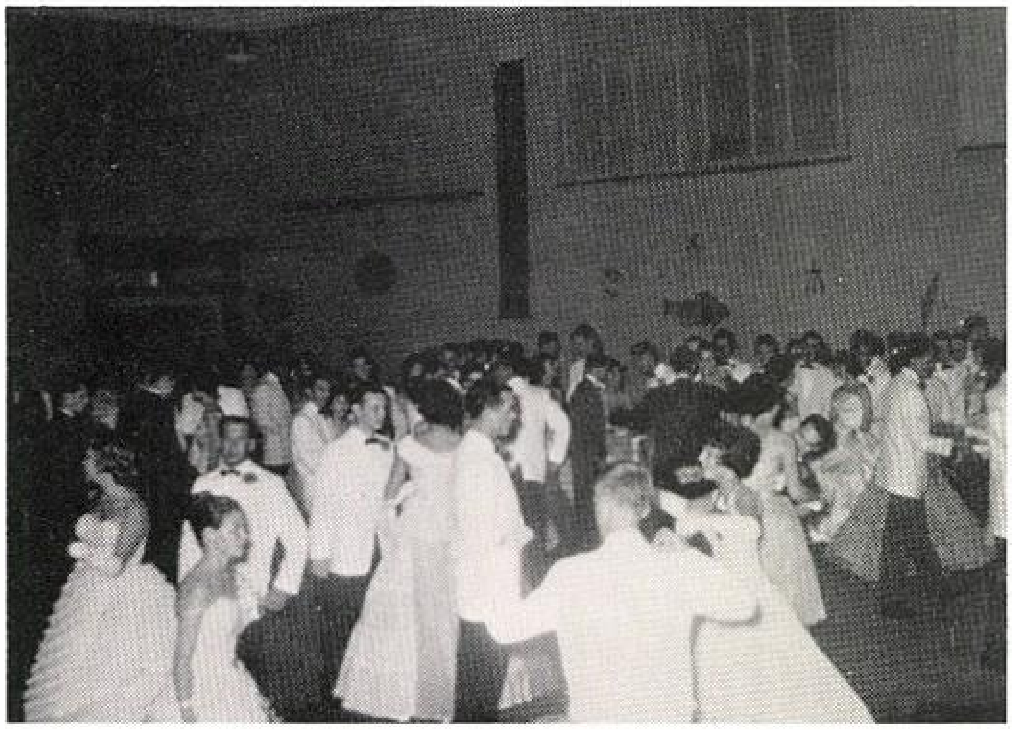
Student Council

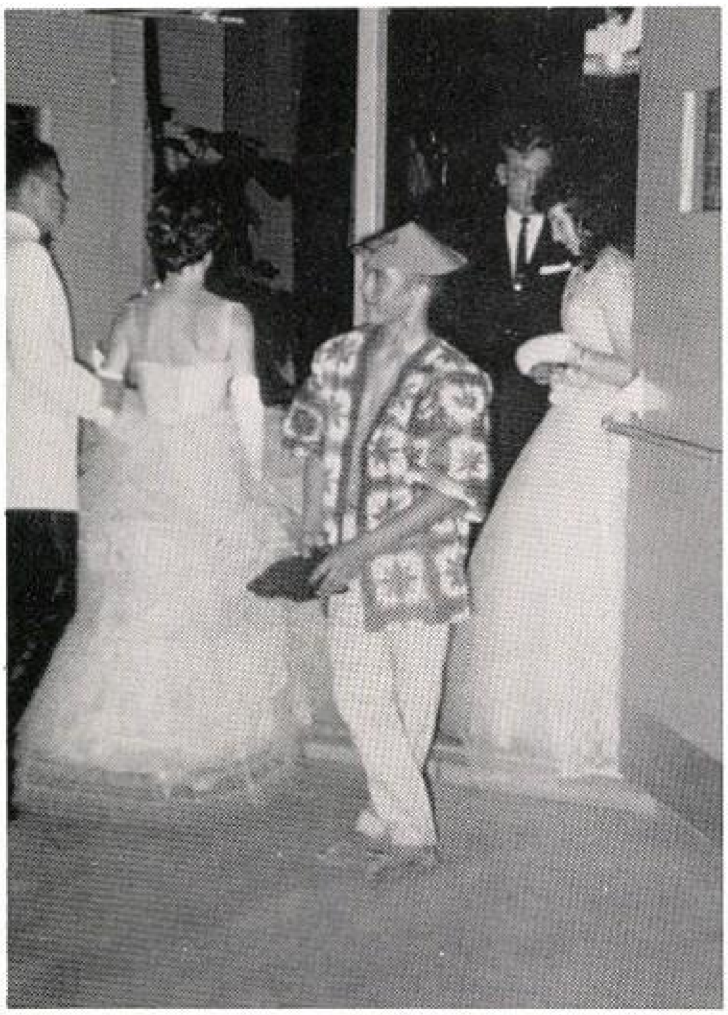
Members of the Student Council are first row: Ronnie Strickland, Pete Ellis, Zack Smith, Stuart Driscoll, Johnny Hester, Demming Ward. Second row: Ginny Truslow, Sherry Bailey, Marsha McLean, Mayme Price, Merry Chambers, Ruth Ann Baker, Alice Ward. Third row: Hiram Prevatt, Dave Taylor, Clyde Hatcher, Ray Overstreet, James MacLeod, Charles Livermore, Dick Holmes.

Homeroom Presidents



Junior Senior

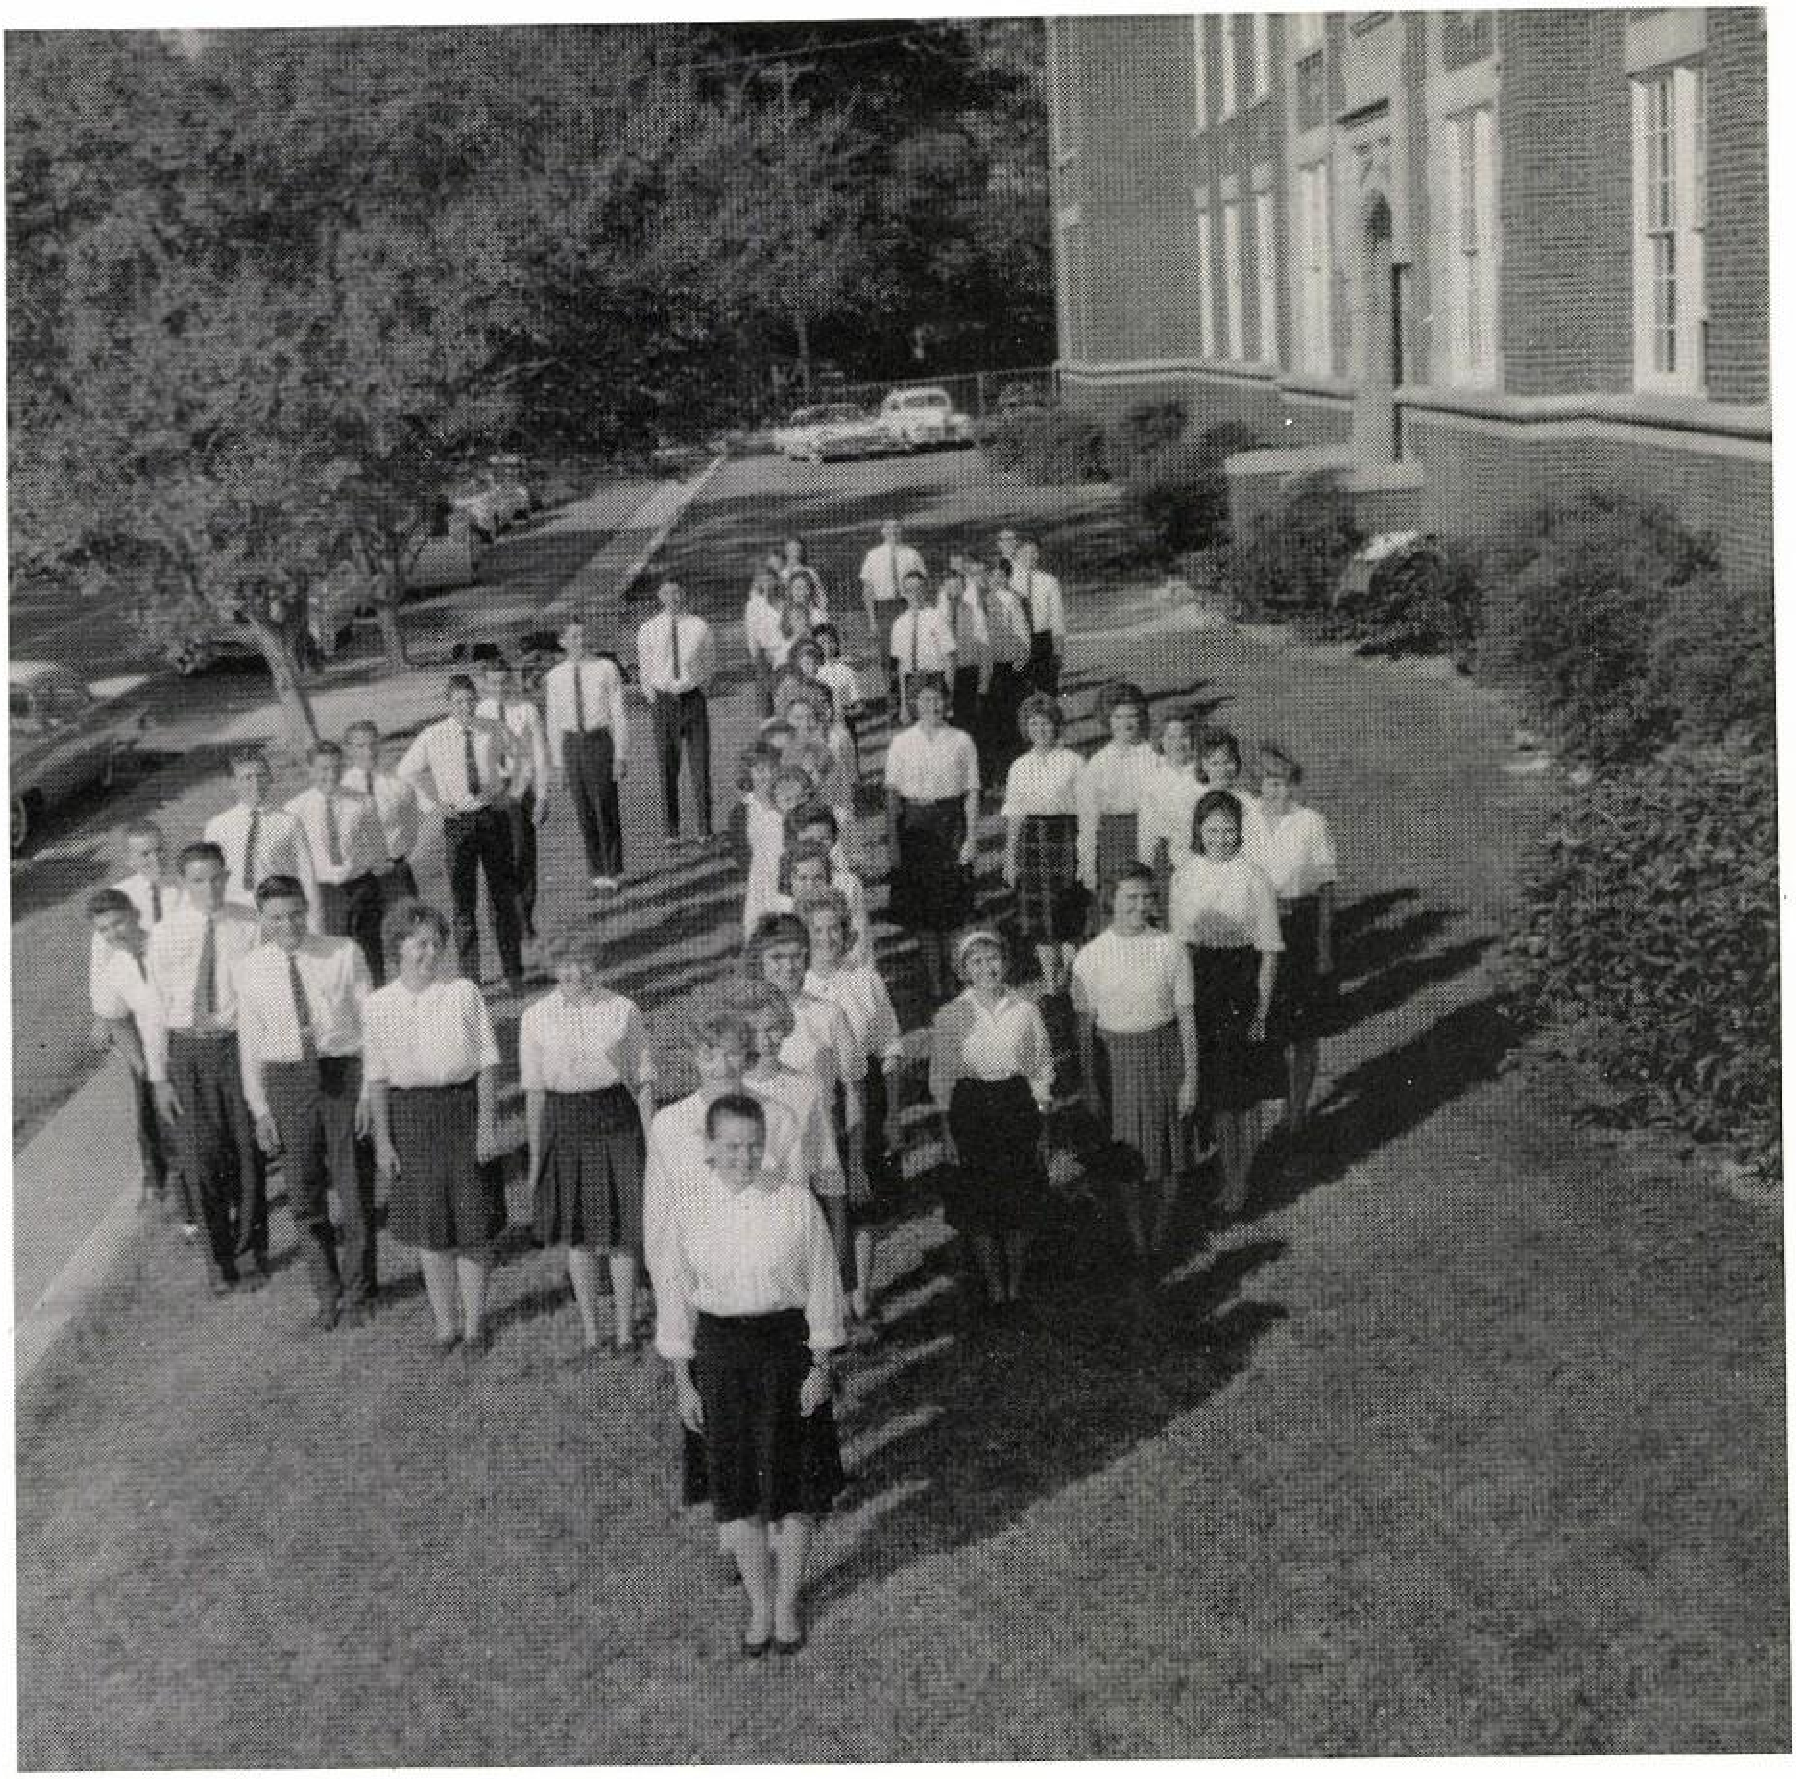




L.H.S. Band

Linda Atkinson, Drum Major

Linda Hatcher, Head Majorette; Barbara Nan Pittman; Donna Stephens; Sandra Amerson; Smantha Biggings.



Glee Club

The Lumberton High Glee Club has come a long way in the past few years. They have grown in size as well as in popularity. There are fifty-eight members enrolled.

Mr. Robert Crumpler, the new director has done an exceptional job in directing the Glee Club.

This year the Glee Club gave a combined Christmas program with the band, which was held on December 20. They also entered contests during the month of March.

Penny Bunch Tri-Hi-Y

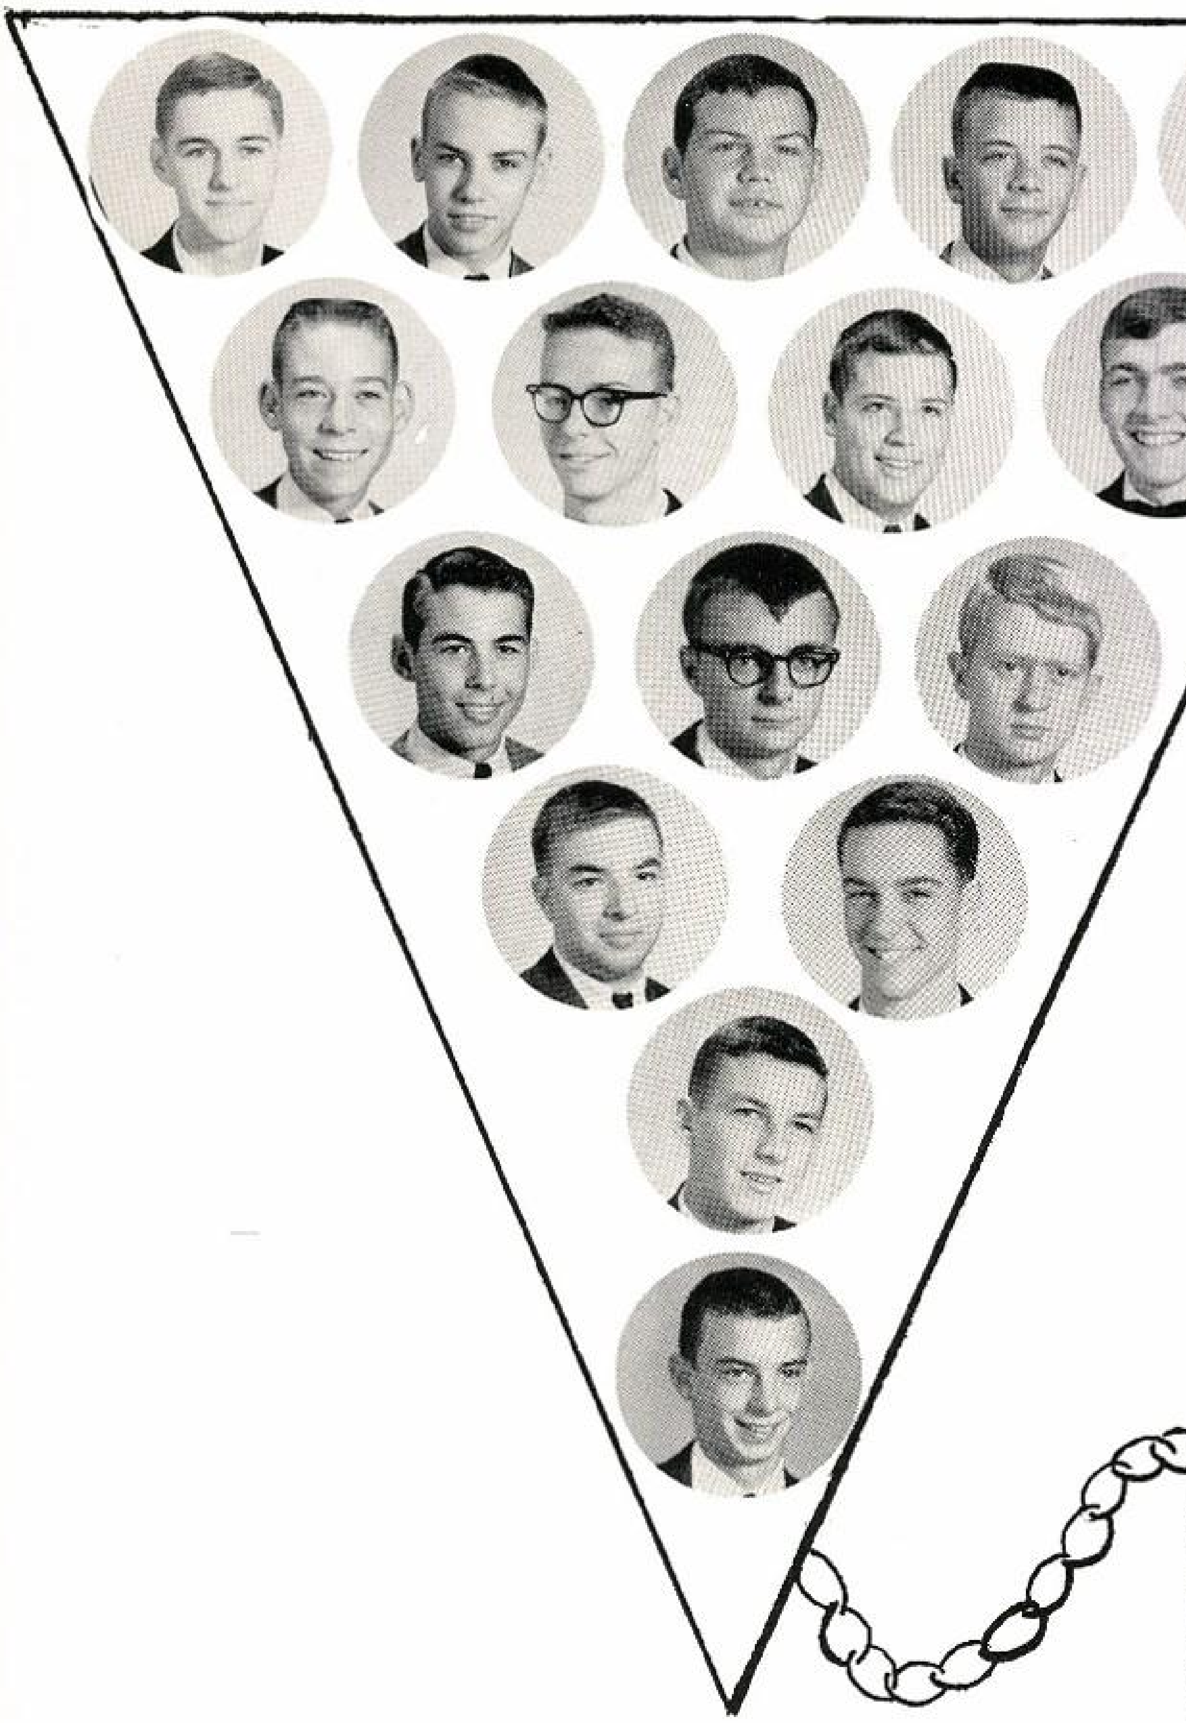
The Penny Bunch Tri-Hi-Y, under the leadership of Cherry Hinnant, president, accomplished a great deal this year. With the help of the other officers, Diane Jones, vice-president; Betty Gray, secretary; Cheryl Davis, treasurer; Sandra Newton, sergeant-at-arms; and Wanda Ray, chaplain, the club had a talent show, helped a needy family, and gave the annual Shamrock Dance at which the new Shamrock Queen was crowned.

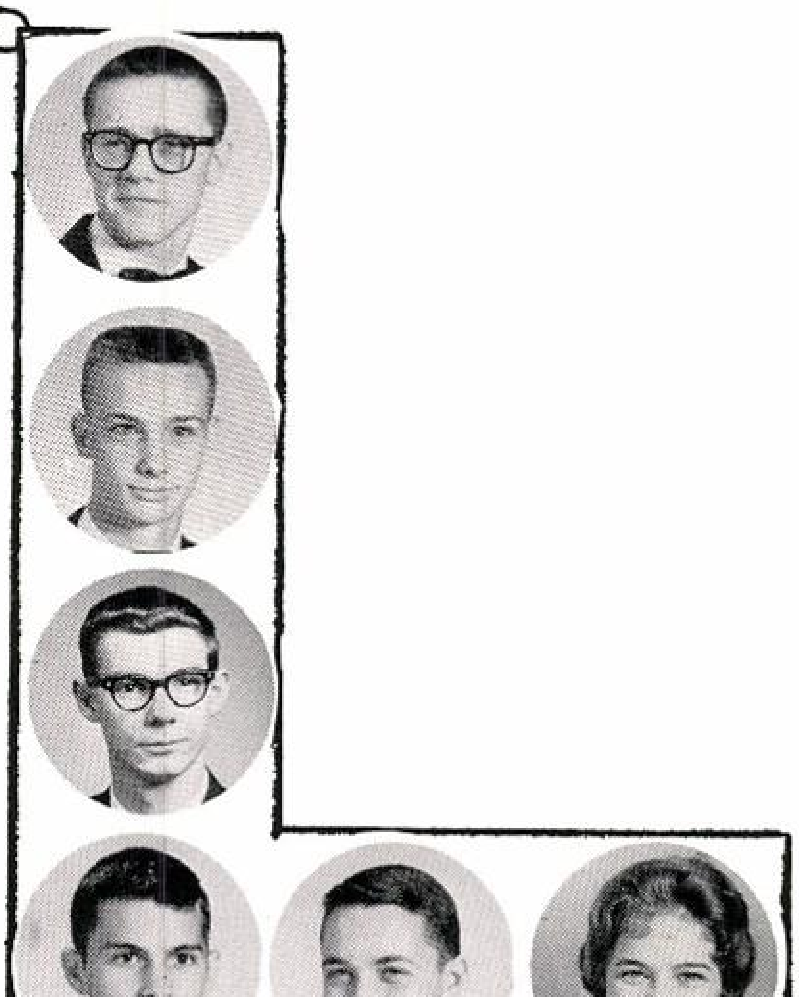
Alpha Omega Tri-Hi-Y

The Alpha Omega Tri-Hi-Y has had a good year under the leadership of Barbara Pittman, president; Sarah Ward, vice-president; Brenda Singletary, secretary; Sue Price, treasurer; Linda Atkinson, sergeant-at-arms; and Betty Rose Wishart, chaplain.

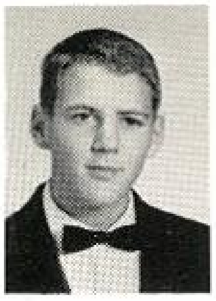
The Club has almost ninety members this year. The girls have sponsored many projects including a dance after a ball game, a candy sale, helping a needy family at Christmas, the annual Powder Puff Game, and their annual Christmas Dance.

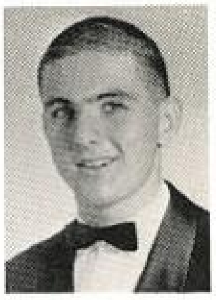
Hi-Y

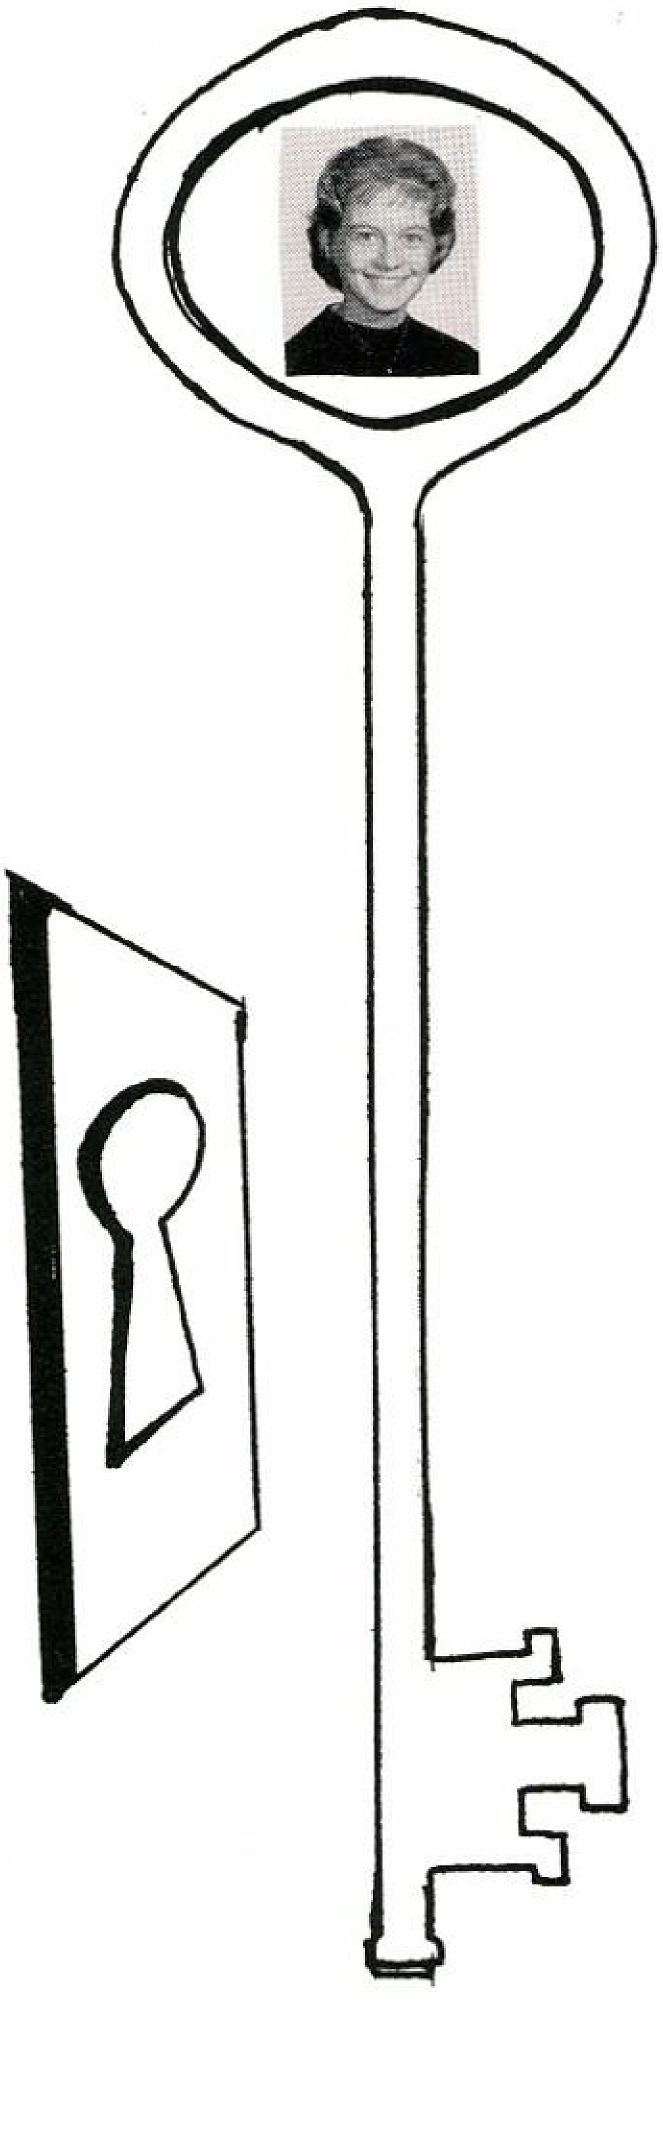


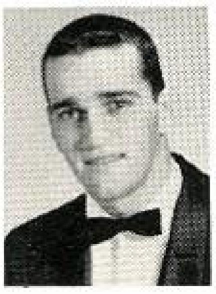


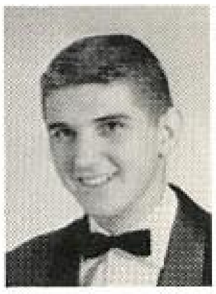
The Hi-Y, under the capable leadership of Glenn Goodyear, president; Mike Doares, vice-president; Dick Holmes, treasurer; Herbert Floyd, secretary; Bobby McKee, sgt. at arms; and James MacLeod, chaplain, co-sponsored a Christmas dance, helped a needy family, held two spring house parties, played the Key Club in a basketball game, and continued to support Andrew, their foster child in Greece.

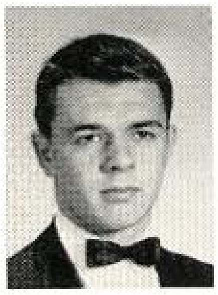


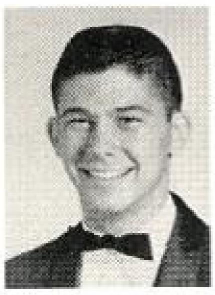


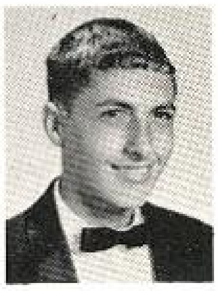


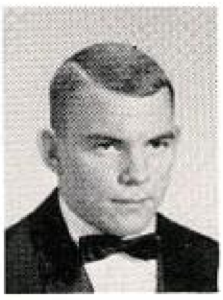


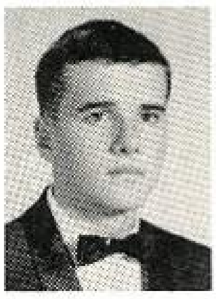


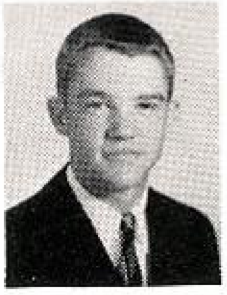


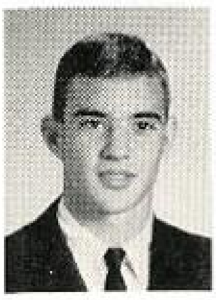


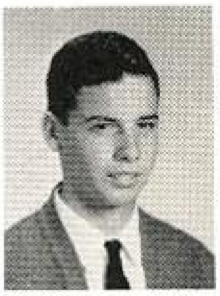


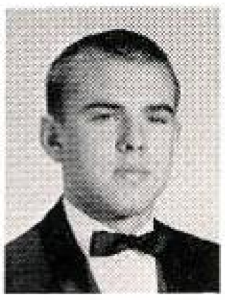












Key Club

Everything was copacetic with the Key Club this year. The Key Club Show blasted out your way every Monday night over WTSB. A Christmas dance was given jointly by the Key Club and Hi-Y. A much-needed week-end beach party was held during the spring. The swinging leaders of this year's club were: John Shepherd, president; David King, vice-president; Johnny Wishart, secretary; Joey White, treasurer; and Brantley Clifton, sgt. at arms.

L'Alliance Française

The French Club, which is composed of all the seniors and juniors who are taking second and third year French, is renowned for the French plays, presented before all the students and also before the P. T. A. They sing many Christmas songs in the classroom and in the halls for the other students.

Henry Ward	president
Herbert Floyd	vice-president
Ray Overstreet	vice-president
Alice Ward	secretary-treasurer
Linda Livermore	secretary-treasurer

Classical Club

In the spring a Latin Banquet was held, and the Latin I students were sold as slaves to the Latin II students. The Junior Classical League Convention in Chapel Hill was attended by the Latin students in March. Last August six representatives attended the National Junior Classical League Convention in Montana.

The Classical Club elected the following officers this year: Leon Ellis, president; Patsy Mees, vice-president; Emily Parnell, secretary; Helen Allen, treasurer; and Glenda Freeman, parliamentarian.

Monogram Club

The Monogram Club has been under the leadership of H. L. Robinson, president; Mackie McIntyre, vice-president; Meg Harrington, secretary; Theresa Britt, treasurer; and sergeant-at-arms, Bob Parnell.

The Club's activities include selling programs at the football games, selling decals, and operating the concession stand.

Junior Recreation Council

The Junior Recreation Council is the planning committee for teen activities within the City Recreation Department. They sponsor dances after the ball game, Halloween activities, and other special events.

Future Teachers of America

Mrs. Underwood

Carolyn,

Can you believe that we are finally seniors? I can't. I will never forget all of the good times we have had at pajama parties, and some of the stupid things we did down in the lower grades. We have been good friends for a long time, and I hope we will continue to be. You a a sweet girl with a personali that everybody likes. I hope that you will always have t best of luck. Maybe you can come up and visit me at E.C.S. next year. Behave now!

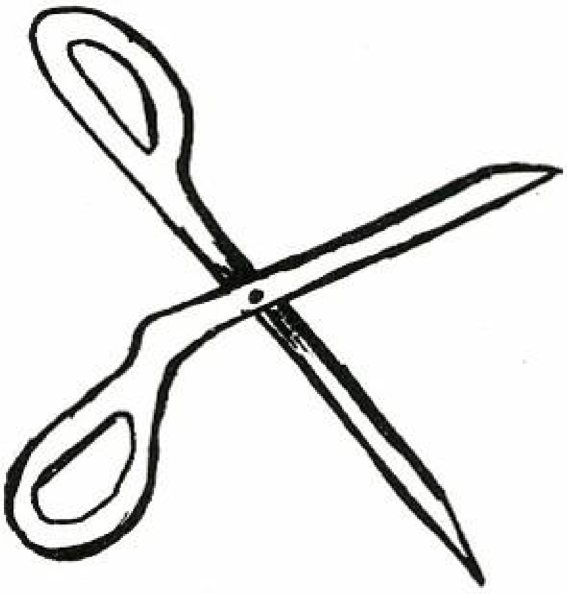
Love,

Judy

(Juggie)

The F. T. A. was headed this year by Mayme Price, president; Alice Ward, vice-president; Lana Tyndall, treasurer; Jane Teague, secretary; Frances Floyd, chaplain; Mrs. Underwood, advisor.

The F. T. A. officers helped serve at the N. C. E. A. banquet. Each member was assigned a teacher to help throughout the year.



F.H.A.

The Future Homemakers of America, headed by Kay Cline, has carried out a full schedule of activities for this school year. This included a Valentine Dance and an Easter egg hunt for needy children.

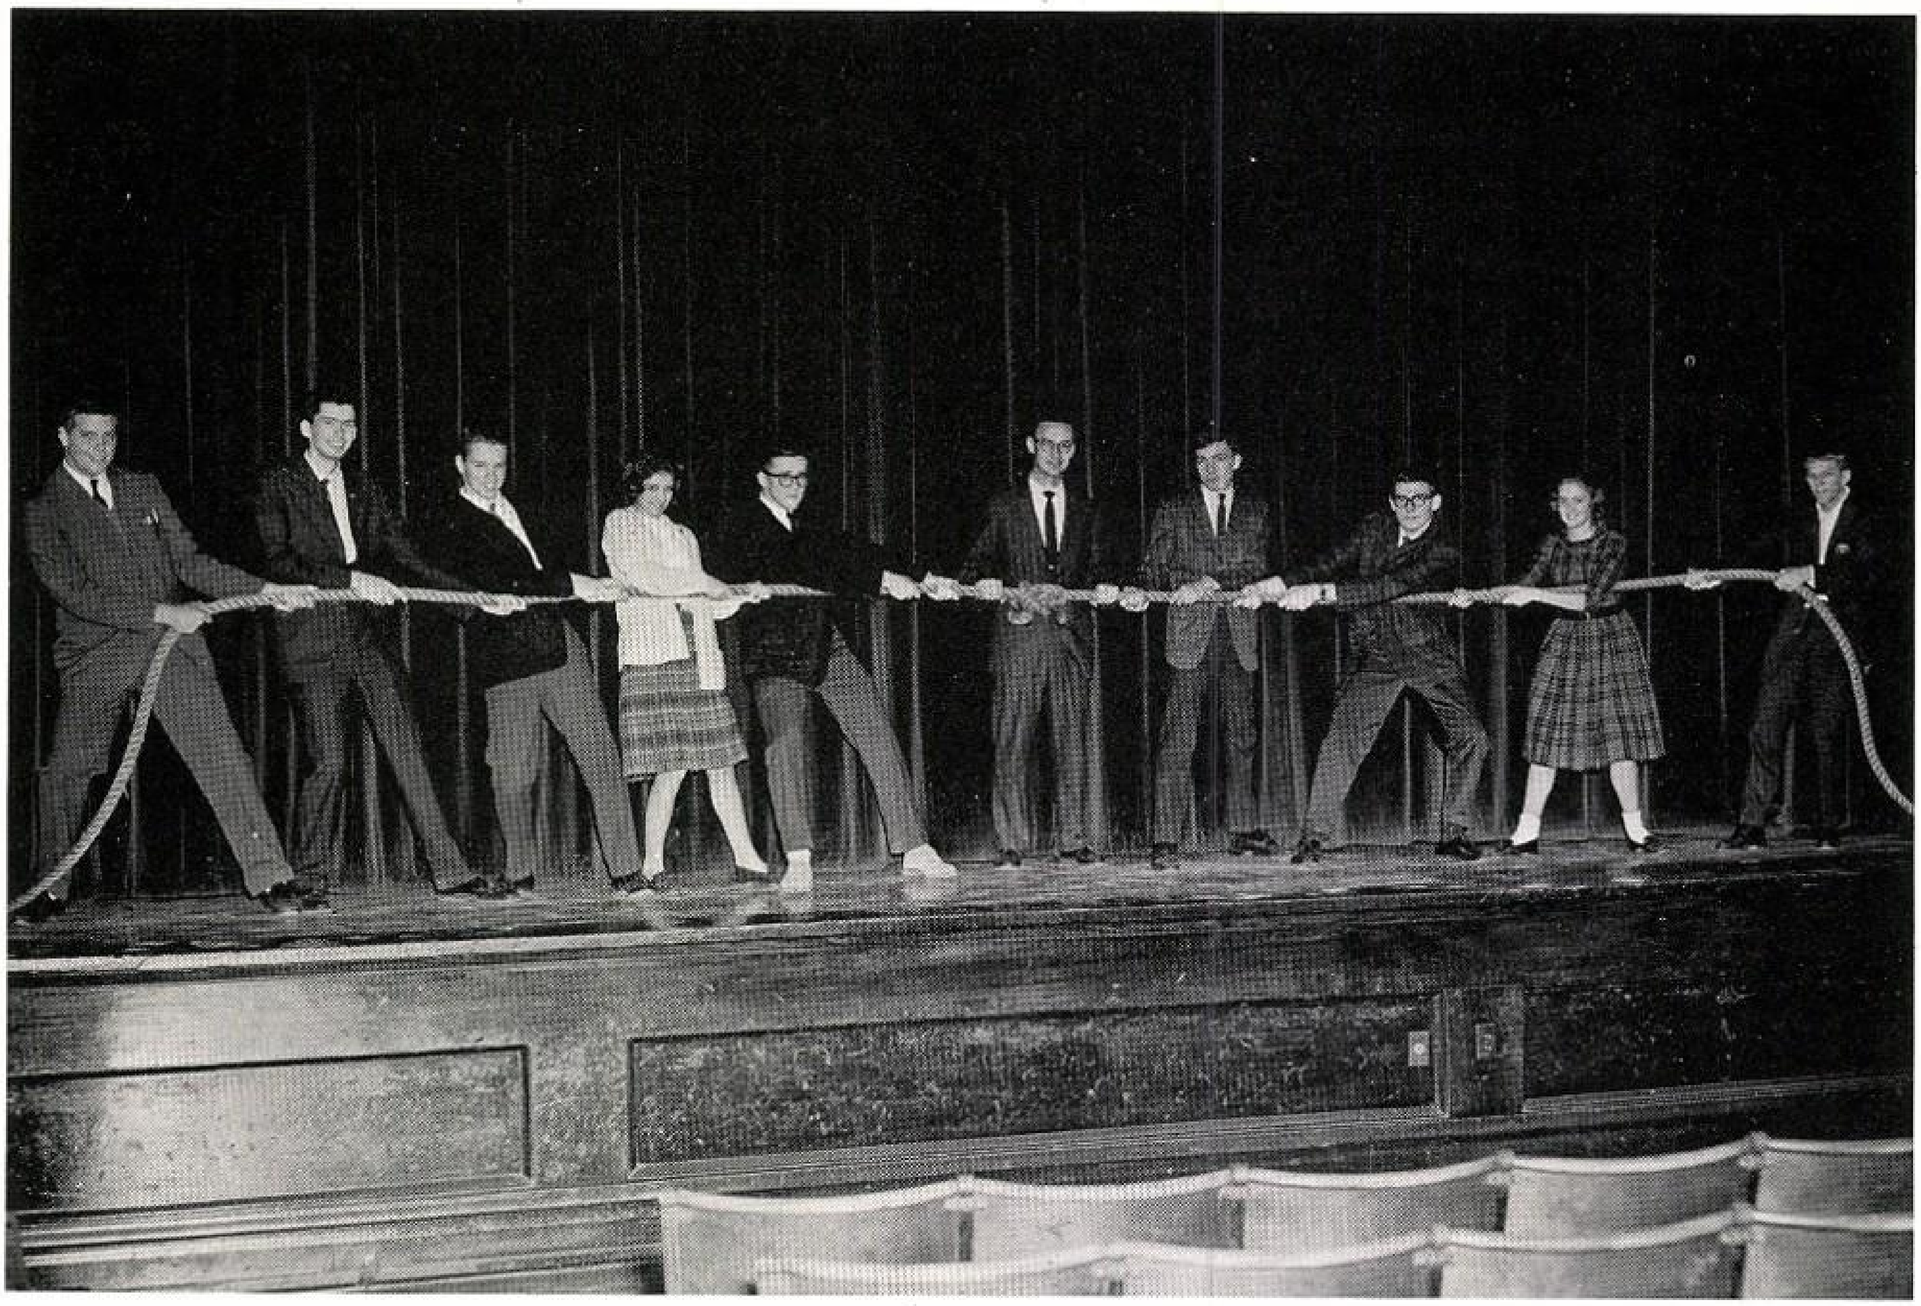
Office Assistants

Cherry Hinnant, Alice Ward, Mary Wilkerson, Joyce Fisher, Ann Wallace, Merry Chambers, Betty Kinlaw, Emily Parnell, Kenny Bryan, Jane Hedgpeth, Nancy Walton, Cheryl Davis, and Wanda Ray.

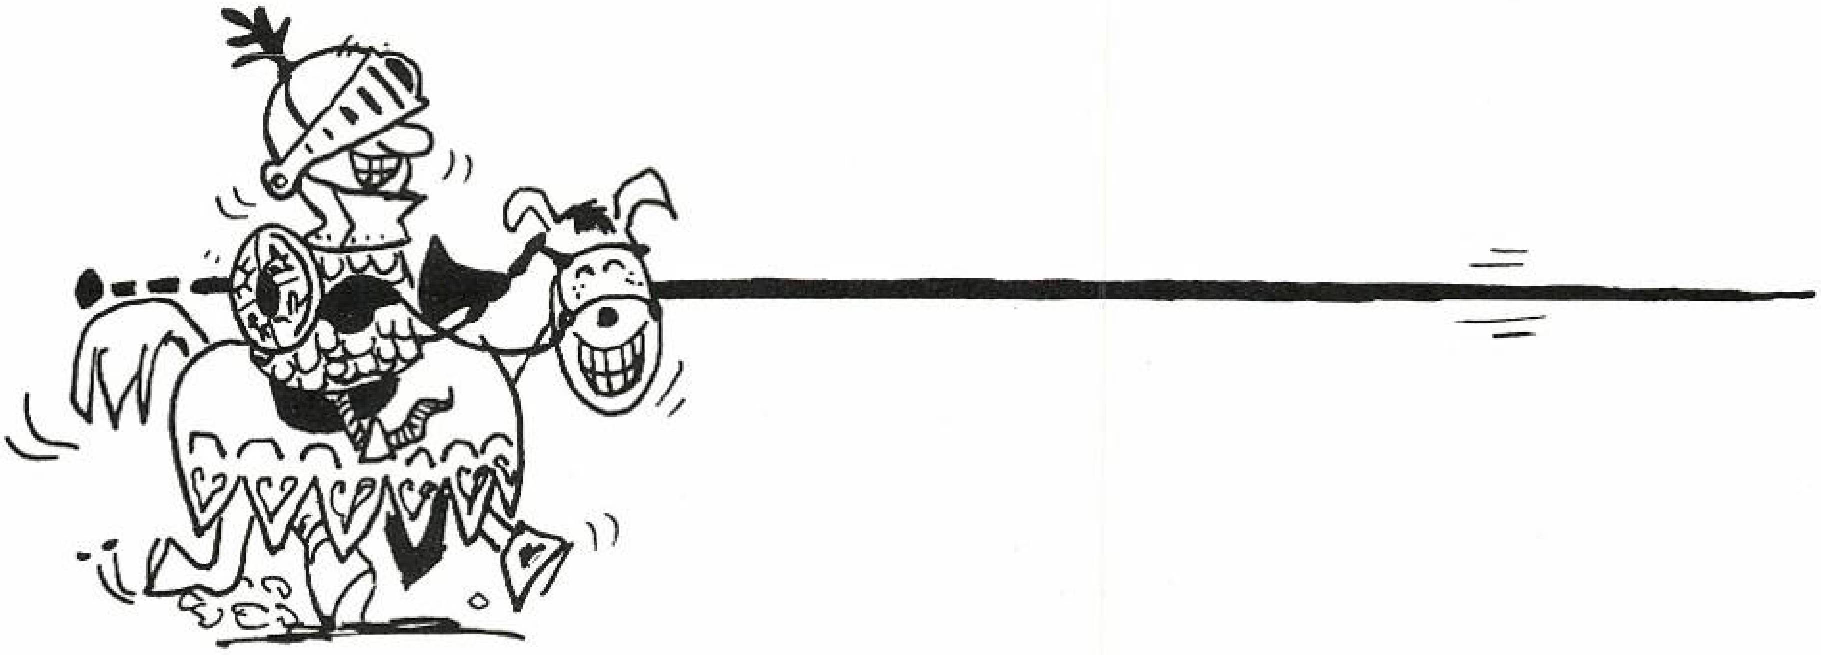
Library Club

The Library Club is a service club whose aim is to make more available to students and teachers the books and materials they need.

Officers for this year are follows: Leon Ellis, president; Dianne Davis, vice-president; Glenda Freeman, secretary; and Patsy Musselwhite, treasurer.



Debate Club



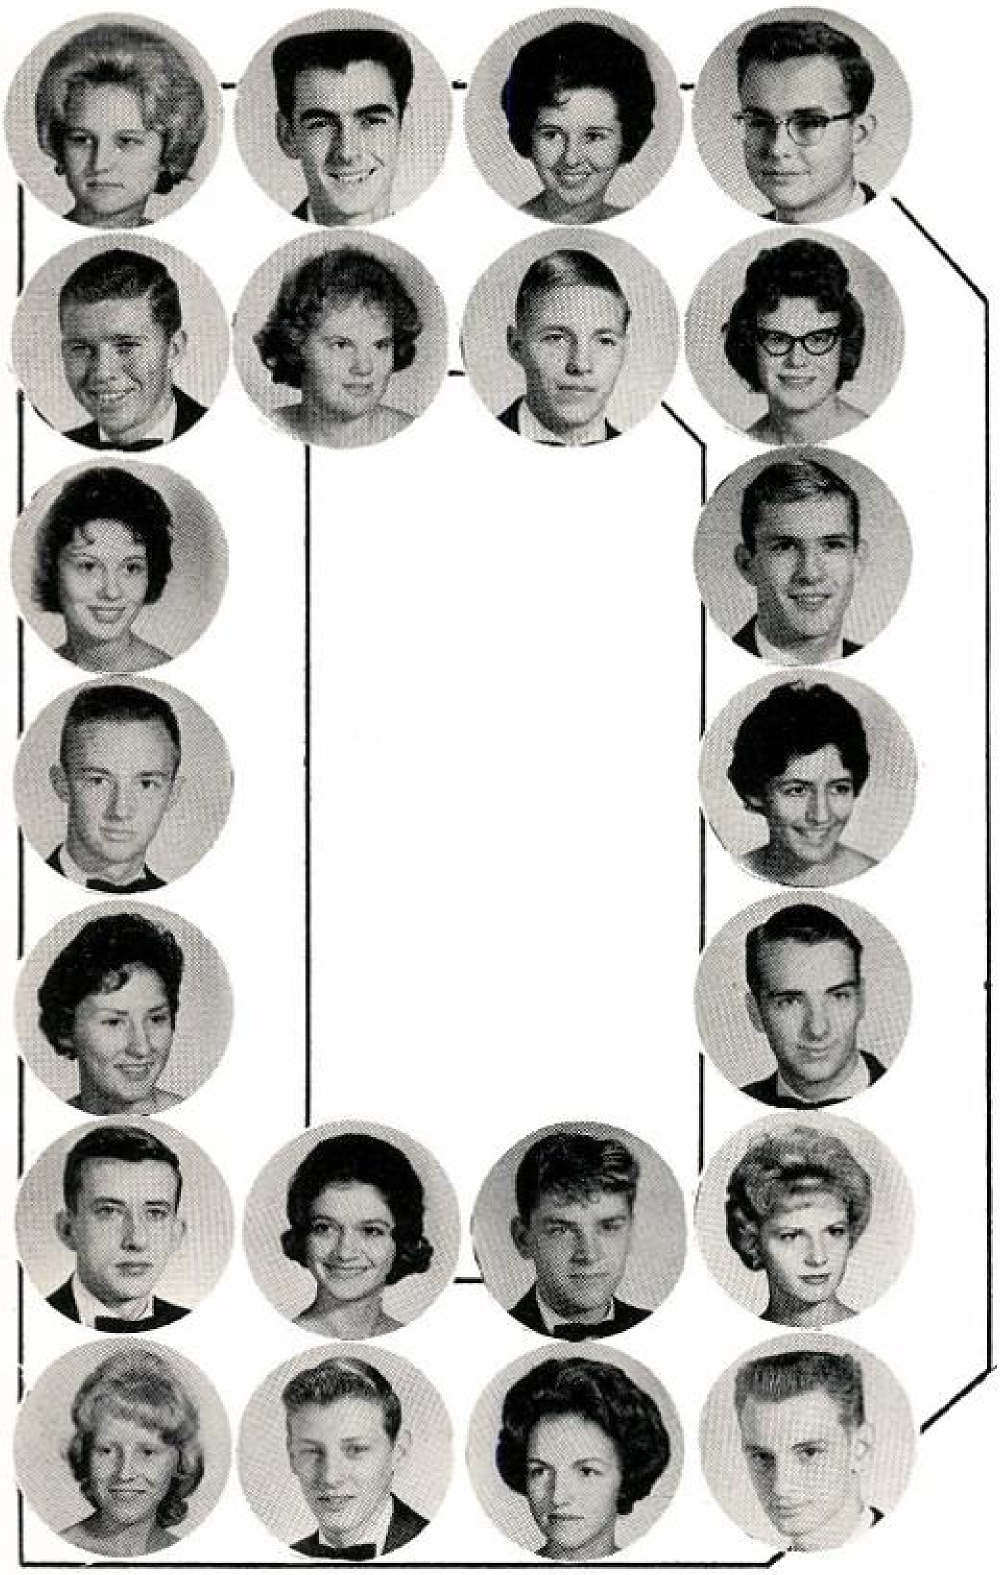
The Debate Club this year was headed by the following officers: Don Gillespie, president; Herbert Floyd, vice-president; Glenn Goodyear, secretary-treasurer. The purpose of the Debate Club is to give interested students an opportunity to debate current topics and to learn the proper techniques of debating. To accomplish this purpose, regular judged debates were held throughout the year. Also the Lumberton Club participated in the Triangle Debates with Rockingham and Hamlet.

Journalism Club

This year the Journalism Club has been pushed to the press by Rose Ann Shaw, editor; and Lauren and Lee McLean, co-assistant editors.

The Journalism members have been quite busy pecking away at the typewriter keys. Every week their column, "High-Life, High-Lites," has appeared in the Lumberton Post. Also several very interesting editions of the TREASURE CHEST, our school paper, have been published.

A limited number of sophomores, juniors, and seniors compose this club. It is their job to let everyone in on the secrets of L. H. S.



D.E. Club

The D. E. Club is composed of 46 Distributive Education students who are interested in classroom instructions and on-the-job training. Every year members are elected to represent the D. E. Club in the Southeastern District and state conventions. This year Tommy Hodge was elected president of the Southeastern District. Participants entered district contests of job interviewing, public speaking, and salesmanship. The D. E. students learn a great deal from the invaluable training they receive in the D. E. program under the direction of Mrs. Nina Lineberry.

Carolyn,

I realize I'm not pictured here, or on either page of this book, but this page interests me the most. After all MEN is my favorite subject, or should I say Man? He's my guy, alright! At last I'll be his June 30th. Egads! That's exactly two months or 60 days from today.

Carolyn, you have been a tremendous inspiration to me this last year and I'll always remember these things.

I'll never forget my Carolyn's wedding day. Sometimes we have to smile when we are really crying inside. I guess that's life!!

I know you think being married would er dull Carolyn, but I really am looking for-ard to it. I am not rushing things and you now that, I think. But I really believe I am er of the luckiest girls in the world.

I'll always remember all the fun we've had together, like der [illegible] parties and P.J. Parties we have had. How about [illegible] of SOB? Those P.J.'s were the wildest!

Long will live the memories of all our experiences, ills, and tears. Carolyn, never accept the mediocre and you will have all the happiness & success the future holds in store. It has been a bed of roses and a basket of sunshine, and I hope it continues.

A Pal Forever,

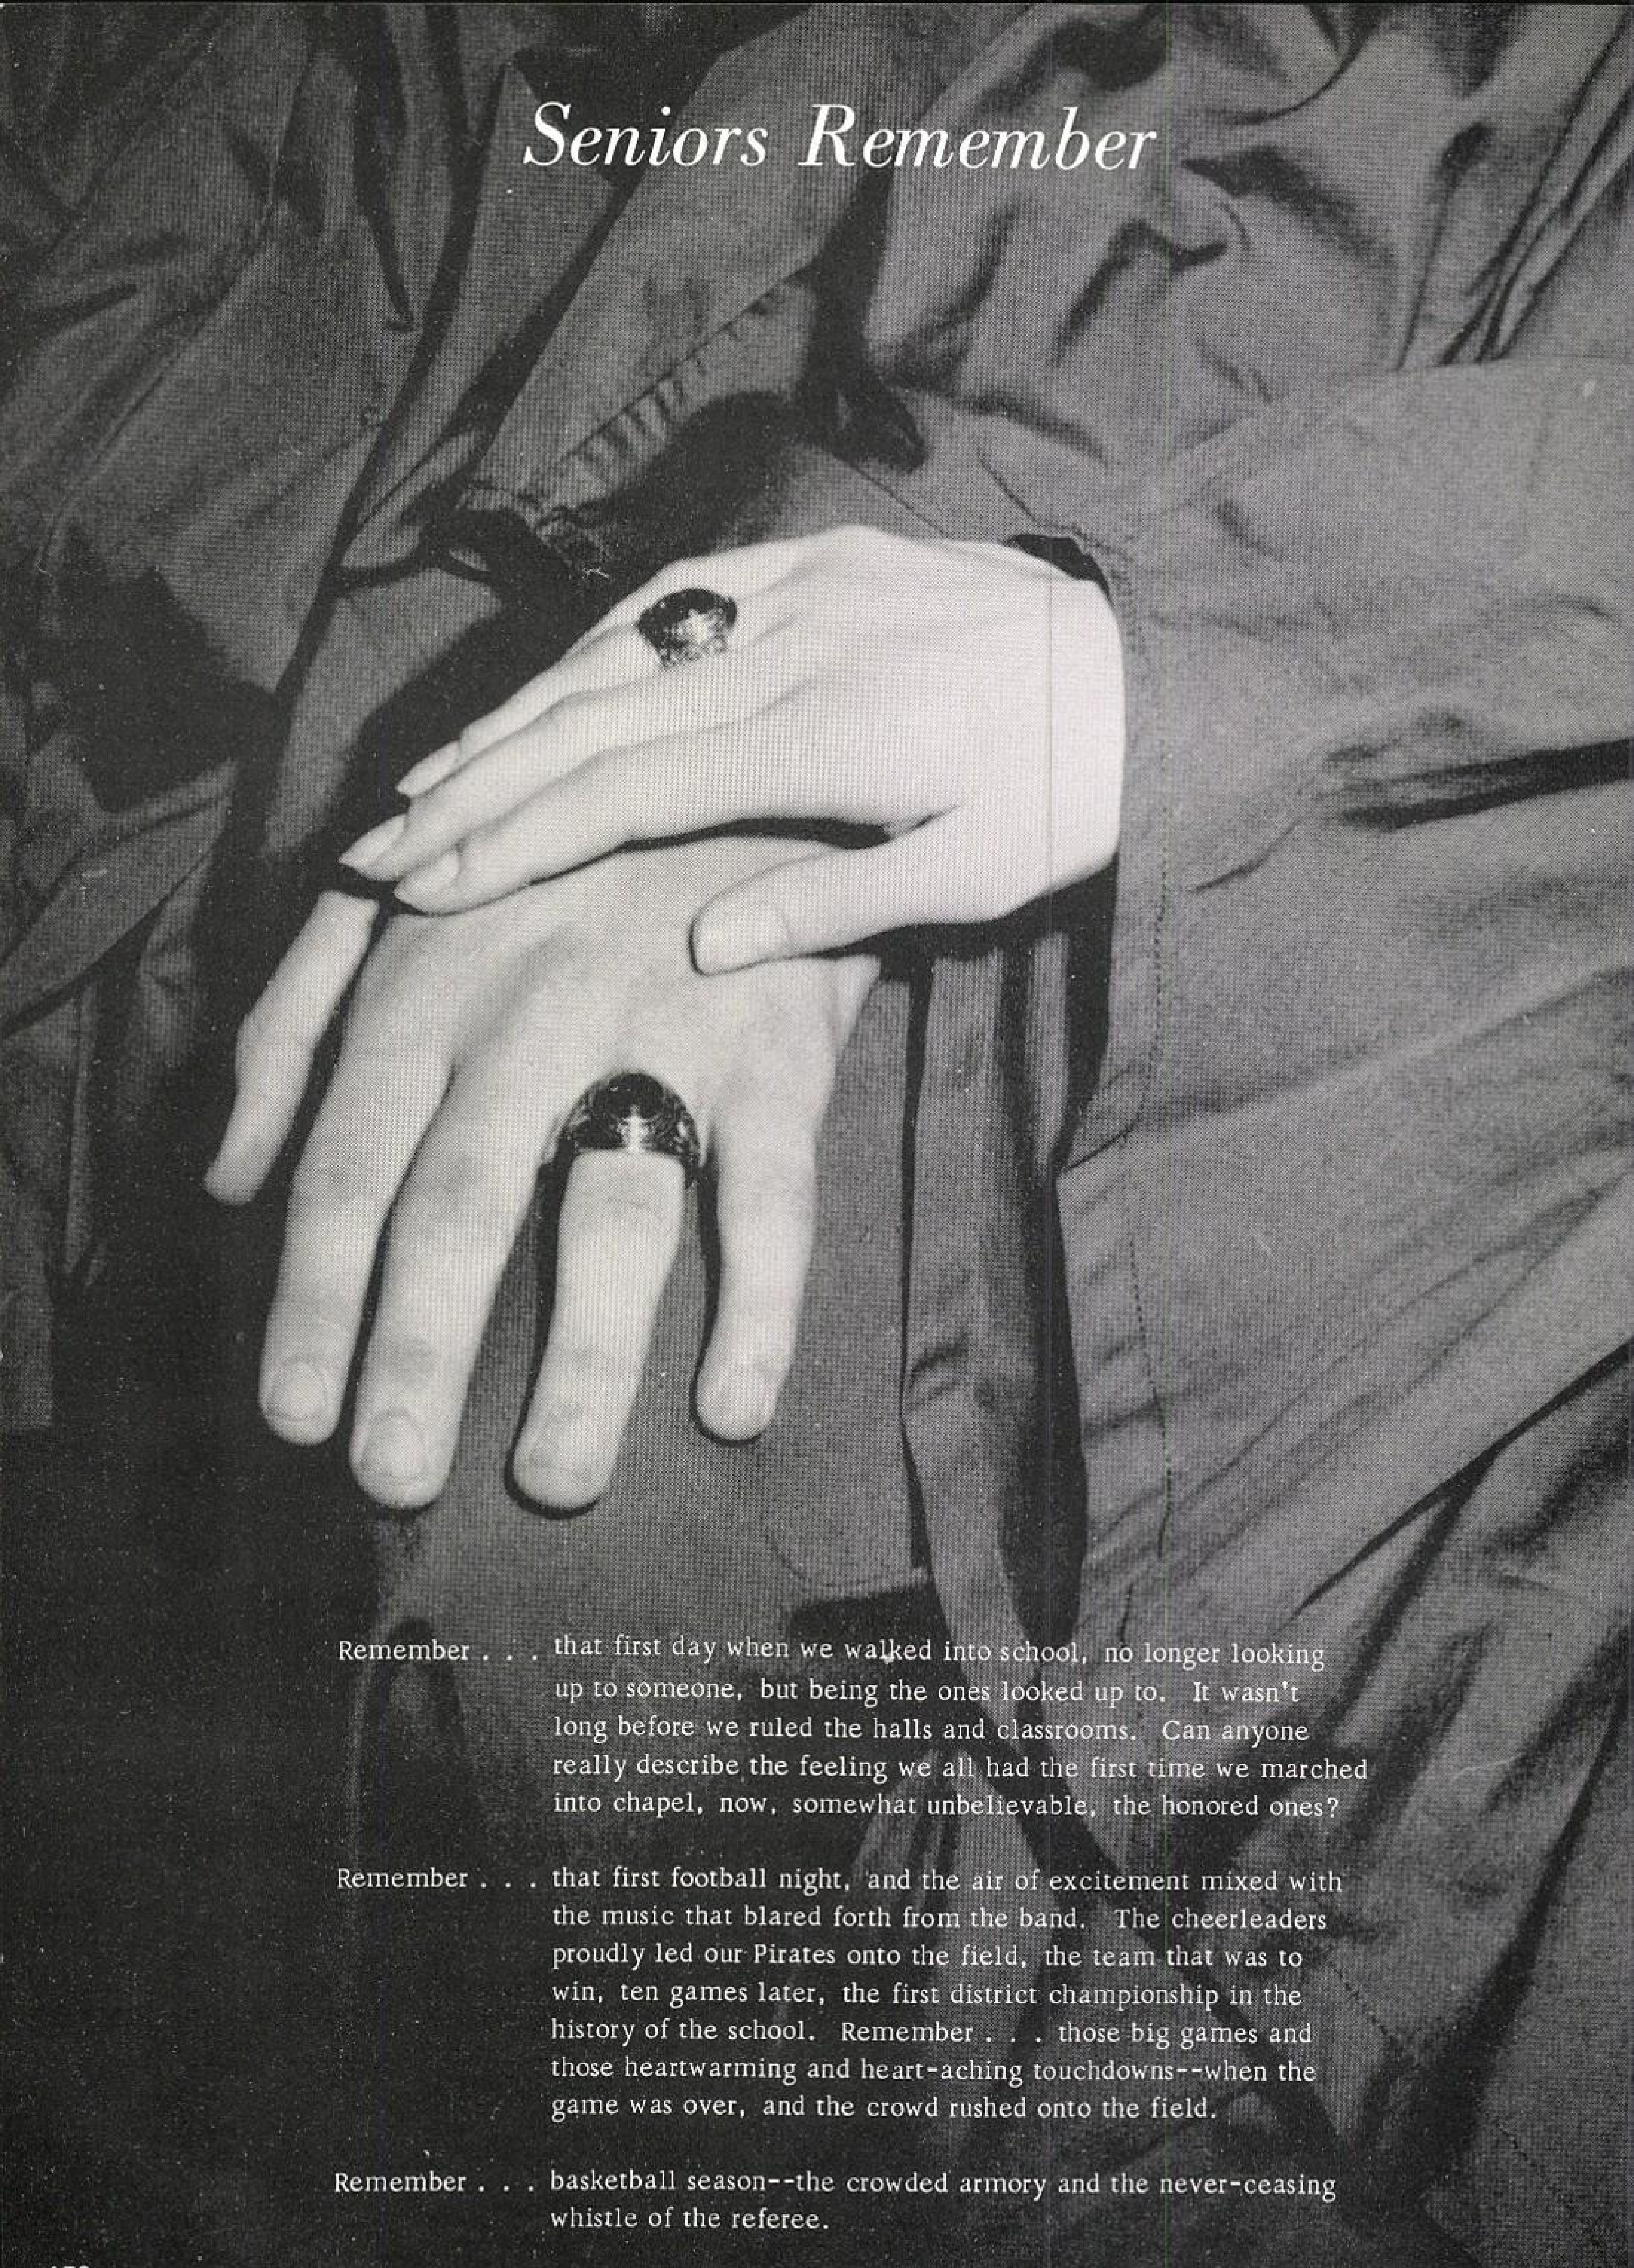
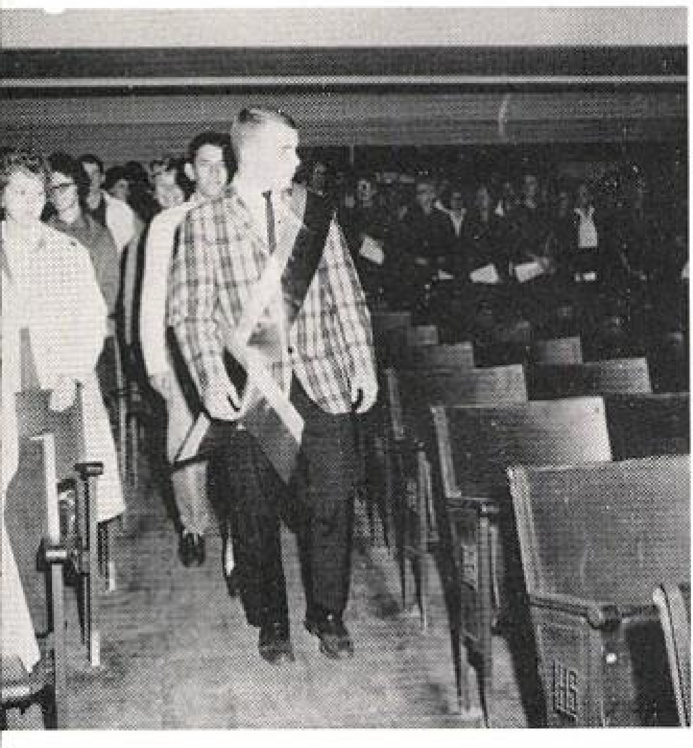
Seniors Remember



Remember . . . that first day when we walked into school, no longer looking up to someone, but being the ones looked up to. It wasn't long before we ruled the halls and classrooms. Can anyone really describe the feeling we all had the first time we marched into chapel, now, somewhat unbelievable, the honored ones?

Remember . . . that first football night, and the air of excitement mixed with the music that blared forth from the band. The cheerleaders proudly led our Pirates onto the field, the team that was to win, ten games later, the first district championship in the history of the school. Remember . . . those big games and those heartwarming and heart-aching touchdowns--when the game was over, and the crowd rushed onto the field.

Remember . . . basketball season--the crowded armory and the never-ceasing whistle of the referee.



Remember . . . madras and Weejuns, Villagers and Gants, kilts and knee-socks, London Fogs and racoon collars, wrap-around skirts, monograms, patches, charm bracelets, madras secretaries, button pins, and English Leather.

Remember . . . how as the year drew to a close and the end of a way of life in which we had known security for twelve years approached, we looked toward graduation with mixed emotions--we had both a trapped feeling and a sense of new-found freedom.

How nice it would be to wake up tomorrow and have it September and all of our days ahead of us--those days at L. H. S. that we'll remember as long as we live.

Remember . . . ?

TOMMY and NANCY

Carolyn—
Really, I have enjoyed going to school with you! We haven't learned too much, but this I know—you are a fine friend and I'll never forget you. You have the best personality to be found anywhere—you're a true nut to the end! Keep smiling and laughing! Have fun! Love, Joyce
P.S. Baby Brother is precious.

Class History

There's The Door, waiting to be opened. Reach out, grasp the handle, and open it--no, not yet; we're not ready. We can't leave now. We've just arrived.

Why are we reluctant to open this door? We've been opening doors all our lives. Yes, just twelve years ago we opened the first one. Oh, it wasn't difficult. The hinges swung easily. Such a new, attractive door! It almost invited us to open it. Once on the other side of the door, we found that it closed behind us. We couldn't go back, but then we discovered that we didn't want to. We were so busy getting to know and understand each other that there was no time to think of the past.

Years passed, happy years spent working and playing together. We learned to read and write and to compute difficult mathematical problems (2 + 2 = 4). We learned something about the world around us, especially about the people who make up the world. What a profound discovery it was that the world wasn't square and that everyone didn't speak English. Our thoughts were still uncomplicated by the Cold War and the rising cost of living.

Why, we knew everything! Then we began to notice a second door. It was somewhat more massive in appearance than the first through which we had come. Having become quite bored with our now childish surroundings, we grabbed the handle and pulled with all our might; but the door moved only enough to enable us to see what was on the other side.

Oh! What torture! What anguish! Why couldn't we enter? The answer becam apparent. The appropriate time had not arrived. Undaunted, we continued our pursuits, always with an eye on the partially opened door. Then, . . . it moved.

Confusion, mass hysteria, bewilderment, fun, study, heartache, all forms of sorrow and happiness. These we have experienced for four years, but now it's over.

There's The Door, and on the other side . . . life.

MOTTO - Today we follow; tomorrow we lead.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of Lumberton High School, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this our last will and testament. We give, devise, and bequeath the following unto each of these heirs:

I, Dona Jean Adams, will my seat in Mrs. Richbourg's English class to Dale Chappell.
I, Lydia Alvarez, will my Cuban accent to the ones in L. H. S. who like it.
I, Carol Barnes, will my "apple with the worm" to my cousin, Karan.
I, Joe Bateman, will my job to Robert Earl.
I, Beverly Bauer, will Room 36 to all in the next senior class who "go steady."
I, Kathryn Baxley, will to Miss Roberts one safe driving Driver Education class.
I, David Biggs, will leave nothing to nobody.
I, Susan Biggs, will all my red school clothes to Ginger Owens.
I, Samuel Boone, do not directly deed; neither will I will willingly.
I, Carolyn Bozeman, will to everyone at L. H. S. a transcript of my famous Exiky, Mixky, Pixky, Wixky Show which was broadcasted by me, Bozo.
I, Bessie Braswell, will to Meg Harrington my ability to go steady.
I, Sandra Britt, will my seat in Senior English to Judy Faircloth.
I, Shirley Brock, do hereby will all my good times at L. H. S. to my sister.
I, Ronald Capps, will one job at Winn-Dixie, one junk Ford, and several "like new" girls to anyone fool enough to take them.
I, Merry Chambers, will the expression, "I've been used," to Danny Hedgpeth because he knows what to do with it.
I, Brantly Clifton, will Rudy Inman shotgun in my Edsel.
I, Kay Cline, will my natural blonde hair to Lea Noble, for she will need it before she is twenty-five years old.
I, Jayne Crump, will to Kenny Bryan my place on the pavement so that he will not forget how I got it.
I, Cheryl Davis, do will my presidency of the Drut Society to Meg Harrington and the hem in my cheerleading skirt to Theresa Britt.
I, Tommy Davis, will my uncanny ability to get along with English teachers to Kenny Bryan, as that seems to be one of his weak points.
I, Muldoon DeVane, will to some lucky boy my good looks and marvelous personality.
I, Rita Emanuel, will to Gail Richardson my foolish ways in order to catch Daryl.
I, Mack Faulk, will one box of crackers to Lea Noble.
I, Joyce Fisher, will L. H. S. and the happiest years of anybody's life to Sister Judy.
I, Frances Floyd, will many projects and several optional drawings to L. H. S. teachers.
I, Allen Gardner, being of unsound mind and body, think I shall break my other arm.
I, Don Gillespie, bequeath nothing to nobody, for I plan to take it all with me.
I, Glenn Goodyear, will my ability to get along with teachers to all rising seniors.
I, Joe Gore, will $10 to Mr. Gay for services rendered.
I, Linda Grant, will my shorthand book to anyone who can read that scribbling.
I, Beth Graves, will my jealousy to Katherine Smith.
I, Betty Gray, will one TM to Kenny Bryan, hoping he enjoys it.
I, Mary Grimsley, will to Faith Parrott and Brenda Brigman my "C" on conduct.

I, Michael Pruitt, will one bottle of black dye to any blonde that wants it.

I, Jimmy Ransom, will one good elbow to the Lumberton Athletic Department wringer.

I, Wanda Ray, will leave my ridiculous nickname, "Winnie B. Wiggles."

I, Russell Redmond, will one yellow Doubeulle to Sue Price and Ruth Ann Baker.

I, H. L. Robinson, don't want to will, but if I must, I will, so I will.

I, Barden Rogers, will my part to no one because I want it.

I, Frankie Rozier, will Lumberton High School to the Senior Class of 1964.

I, Larry Rozier, will my physics grades to anyone foolish enough to take them.

I, Charles Russell, will my Winstons to Jacky Spruill.

I, Carolyn Sealey, will my seat in Miss Roberts' Typing II class to anyone who is crazy enough to take it.

I, Kenneth Sellers, will my Chevrolet to the junk yard.

I, Carol Scarboro, will my French grades to the birds.

I, Rose Ann Shaw, will my position as editor of the Treasure Chest to Lee and Lauren McLean, in hopes that they will do a "double" good job.

I, John Shepherd, will my golfing ability to Malcolm McGrath.

I, Grady Smith, will Football Jersey No. 22 to the right end next year.

I, Louise Smith, will my giggles, good times, and loads of homework to Mrs. Guy.

I, Patricia Stephens, will my D. E. job at Wood's 5 & 10¢ Store to one who needs it.

I, Paul Stone, will to John McLean a run on the beach.

I, Judy Suggs, will my nickname, "Juggie," to anybody fool enough to take it.

I, Jane Teague, leave all my aspirins to Lower Tyndall.

I, John Thompson, will all my knowledge of woodworking and my art of complaining to Mr. Hamilton, who put up with it for four years.

I, Robert Thompson, will Dennis O'Quinn's skill and ability in the lab to next year's chemistry crop.

I, Tommy Thompson, will my football shoes to Buddy Livingston, my socks to John Lennon, and anything else of mine to anyone who can bear the smell.

I, Knocky Thorndyke, will will a will to any junior who plans to will a will next year so he will have a will to will.

I, Sammy Thorndyke, will my comic books to Willie Weatherman.

I, James Treadaway, will my record, "The Striper," to my sister Quida and hope she won't use it.

I, Lana Tyndall, will my red shoes to anyone who can force Mary "Slop" Wilkerson to stop calling them "Laura's Red Hot Shoes!"

I, Nancy Tyner, will my ability to lose textbooks to anyone who has kept up with his.

I, Anne Wallace, will to my brother Hugh T. my uncanny ability in geometry in hopes that he will use it better than I did.

I, Hazel Walters, will to Wayne Allen the privilege of pestering my favorite typing and bookkeeping teachers.

I, Nancy Walton, will my parking place to anyone who has a key to get in - sorry, Ray and Sherry.

I, Alice Ward, will my house to Annual Staff.

I, Faye Ward, will to the Latin I students "my" ability to do Latin II.

Class Poem

I LOOK NOT BACK

I look not back.
The whole of my future
Beckons to me
There is no time to look back.

I look not back.
There is much ahead to see--
New towns, new lands
New ways of life.

I look not back.
There is much ahead to do,
There are tasks to complete
Ambitions to fulfill.

I look not back.
There are people yet to meet,
New friends to make,
New joys to share.

I look not back.
There is much ahead to learn
Of books and work
And life itself.

I look not back.
Though I do not forget
The gifts of early days which
Give me courage for that future.

Bozo,
It has really been great knowing you. I don't think I could ever forget you even if I did wanted to.
Carolyn, seriously though, you have more wit & personality than anyone I know. Always keep it. You're really one of the best. I can't imagine what it will be like without you next year.
Love You!

Carolyn,
Well, we've had quite a year together haven't we. I don't know what I would do if you weren't in some of my classes and able to break some of the monotony of books, etc. You are a very cute - crazy cut-up and I will always cherish your friendship. I'm glad we are friends and I'll miss you when we graduate. I wish you loads

Pirateer Farewell

As the year ends and friends and classmates separate, we look back on many experiences and adventures which took place during the year. This is the last year for some; for others, the first; for all, a year full of pleasant memories. We, the '63 PIRATEER staff, hope that this yearbook has and always will bring back those wonderful memories of L. H. S.

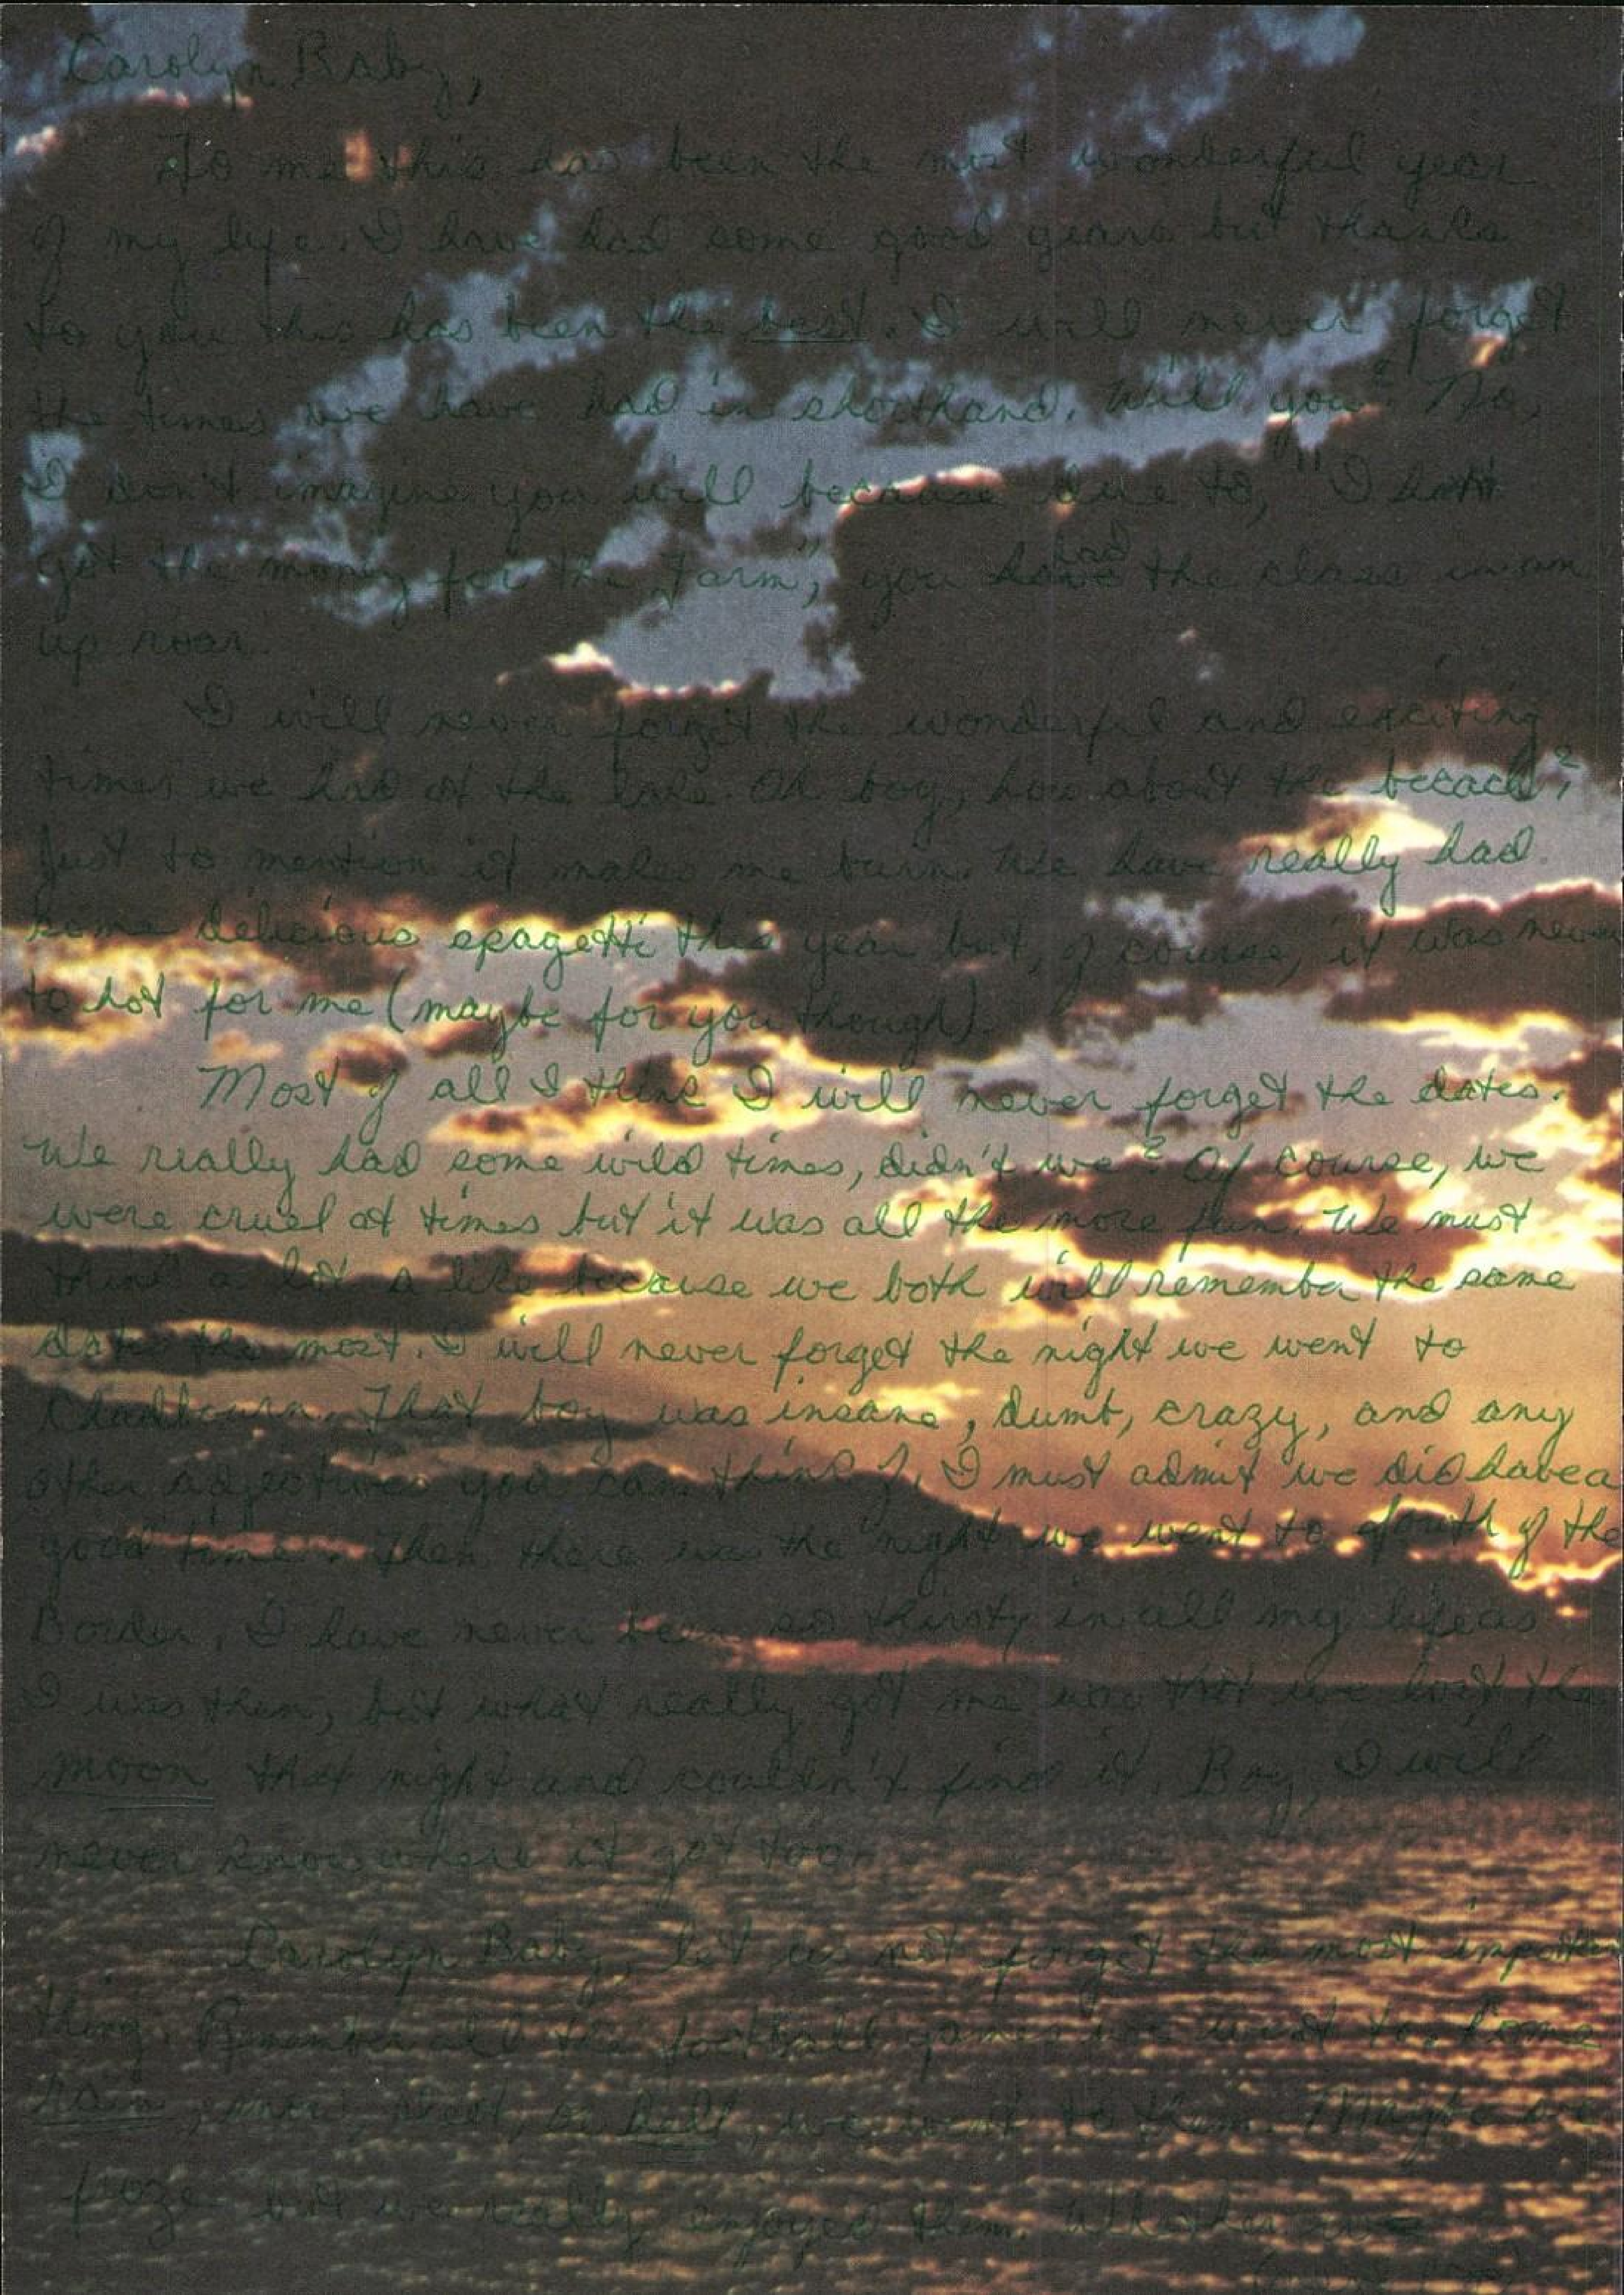
TAYLOR PUBLISHING COMPANY
"The World's Best Yearbooks Are Taylor-made"

Carolyn,

It is hard to write about all the fun we have had all these wonderful years. I will never forget all our good times some a Little Wild just a little that is. Our P.J. Parties was just out of this world. How about the times we had our fun in the middle of the street at 2:00 (and even later) in the morning. Well, that was in our early teens hun?? Let's not forget the time we went to Florence and we were on T.V. We thought that we were it. I will never forget the time we had a certain convertible and it started just perfect when you started to leave. Did you get home that night. Well, it wouldn't have been so funny if Barbara would have used her legs:

Carolyn, I will never forget tonight this P.J. Party is something special because it will be my last one. Tomorrow this time I will be an old Married Woman. I hope I won't be too sleepy. I will never forget our fun. Best of luck to my very best friend. You really deserve it. May God bless you, Carolyn West (Jolly) tomorrow.



Carolyn Baby,

To me this has been the most wonderful year of my life. I have had some good years but thanks to you this has been the best. I will never forget the times we have had in shorthand. Will you? No, I don't imagine you will because due to, "I didn't get the money for the farm", you had the class in an up roar.

I will never forget the wonderful and exciting times we had at the lake. Oh boy, how about the beach? Just to mention it makes me burn. We have really had some delicious spagetti this year but, of course, it was never too hot for me (maybe for you though).

Most of all I think I will never forget the dates. We really had some wild times, didn't we? Of course, we were cruel at times but it was all the more fun. We must think a lot a like because we both will remember the same dates the most. I will never forget the night we went to Chadbourn. That boy was insane, dumb, crazy, and any other adjectives you can think of. I must admit we did have a good time. Then there was the night we went to South of the Border. I have never been so thirsty in all my life as I was then, but what really got me was that we lost the moon that night and couldn't find it. Boy, I will never know where it got to.

Carolyn Baby, let us not forget the most important thing. Remember all the football games we went to [illegible] home games? Well, [illegible], we went to them. Maybe we froze but we really enjoyed them. Whether [illegible] laughed or cried. They were good games, maybe close games but good. This was the best football season we have ever had.

Let us not forget all the nights we spent at each others house. All those little talks we had when we couldn't talk to anyone else, they really helped a lot.

The hour has almost arrived — graduation. You say you think about it, well I don't no whether you think about it any more than I do. I dread to think what next year is going to be like without you. I will really miss you next year, more than you know.

Our friendship is very dear to me. Maybe sometimes I don't show it but you are special to me too. You are a very sweet and wonderful person and along with that you have a splendid personality. I wish you all the happiness in the on-coming future, if anyone deserves it you do.

Love ya, Bozo
Nancy (Fidget)
